Resignation of Thiers.

ITS ACCEPTANCE REFUSED.

He Consents to Remain.

MEXICAN REVOLUTION.

Canada Board of Trade.

CROATIAN DIET DISSOLVED.

FRANCE.

THIERS' RESIGNATION.

LONDON, January 20.—A Dispatch from Versailles says Thiers considers himself personally affected by the rejection of his tariff measure. His resignation is to be presented to the Assembly to-day. If it is not accepted, it is thought the German forces will reoccupy portions of France. Meantime the Assembly contemplates passing a vote of confidence in the President and his ministers to avoid a crisis.

Thiers, in accordance with previous intimations, sent to the Assembly to-day his formal resignation as President, accompanied by the announcement that all the ministers had also tendered their resignations. A vote was adopted almost unanimously, only six members dissenting, appealing to the patriotism of the President, and refusing to accept his resignation. A deputation was appointed to announce to Thiers the action of the Assembly. A Deputy subsequently moved that a committee be appointed to endeavor to effect a compromise with the Executive, and in case of failure, to consider and report to the Assembly forthwith what measure should be taken under the circumstances.

All the parliamentary clubs are sending deputations to Thiers to dissuade him from his purpose.

The Deputies of the Right Centre held a meeting this afternoon and adopted a resolution declaring that the tariff was solely a question of finance, not politics, and in voting against the proposal to tax raw materials they had no intention of expressing a want confidence in the Government.

VERSAILLES, January 20—Midnight.—The deputation appointed by the Assembly waited on Thiers this evening, and informed him of the vote by which the Chamber refused to accept his resignation. Thiers consented to remain in the service of the Chamber and country. It is probable the present ministry will remain in office.

PARIS, January 21.—Thiers yesterday, in reply to the deputation of the Assembly which called upon him to notify him of the refusal of that body to accept his resignation, said he was worn out and discouraged; he could not change his opinions, and believed that conflicts similar to the present one were likely to occur between the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government when the military and educational bills come before the Assembly. Thiers further said that while for the present he consented to withdraw his resignation, the end was inevitable, and sooner or later he would be compelled to retire from the Presidency of the republic.

Marshal MacMahon also called upon Thiers yesterday, and appealed to him, on behalf of the army, to withdraw his resignation. The Marshal said the army would obey the orders of the Assembly, but would not be controlled by a dictatorship, which was likely to follow the unconditional retirement of the President.

Telegrams have been received from several foreign Governments congratulating Thiers upon his continuance as chief of the executive power.

The French journals have for some time past expressed disapproval of the constant participation of the President in the discussions of the legislative body. This complaint has been earnestly discussed in the Ministry, which has now decided to make a proposition to the Assembly that Thiers shall address it only upon important occasions, for which purpose the pending debate shall be at any time adjourned.

STRIKE ENDED.

The strike at Chavleroi is ended. The men will resume work on Monday.

CONCENTRATING TROOPS.

PARIS, January 20.—A considerable force of troops has recently been concentrated in and around Marseilles, and there are an unusual number of men-of-war in the harbor. These circumstances having caused some uneasiness, a deputation of citizens waited on the Prefect of the department to ascertain the cause. The reply of the Prefect was to the effect that in view of the recent disorders, the Government had deemed it prudent to take proper precautions against their renewal.

RUSSIAN OBSERVATION.

PARIS, January 20.—It is announced that Col. Lamaschow, aid de camp to the Czar, has arrived here. According to general report, his object is to personally observe the condition of the French army and report at St. Petersburg.

HELMBOLD.

It is rumored that Dr. Helmbold, who has been under medical restraint at the Maisson de Sante, in the vicinity of Paris, was recently released.

GREAT BRITAIN.

DECLINATION.

LONDON, January 19.—John Stuart Mill declined to preside at the Charles Dike mass meeting.

CONTEST ABANDONED.

Samuel Laing abandoned the contest for Parliament in Northern Burghs.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE ASSAULTED.

LONDON, January 21.—Mr. Deaz, a liberal candidate for Parliament from the county Kerry, Ireland, was violently assaulted by a mob yesterday.

THE SOCIAL MOVEMENT.

NEW YORK, January 21.—The World's London letter contains the detailed plan of Scott Russell for the next step in the social movement, under which he hopes to obtain, by Parliamentary legislation, for every workingman's family a house for forty dollars per annum, and food at wholesale rates, eight hours work, and education. The bills will be ready for presentation to Parliament early in February.

CANADA.

DOMINION BOARD OF TRADE.

OTTAWA, January 20.—The discussion in the Dominion Board of Trade, on the trade relations with the United States and a commercial Zoll-Verein, terminated in the adoption of resolutions for the appointment of a delegation to confer with the executive council of the Canada and United States Board of Trade that the idea of a Zoll-Verein could not be entertained, although they were willing to negotiate for the removal of all restrictions interfering with the legitimate prosecution of trade as far as might be found beneficial to the interests of the two countries.

Messrs. Hazard and McLaren, the American delegates, addressed the board, advocating closer commercial relations with Canada.

A motion was adopted expressing the hope that crude petroleum would be considered in any arrangement that might be effected for the purpose of bringing about free trade.

MEXICO.

THE REVOLUTION.

MATAMORAS, January 20.—The revolutionists under Quirago, attacked Cortena's forces at Camargo yesterday. Fighting still continues. The custom house refuses to allow anything to pass into the country. The diligence and mail from the interior are discontinued in anticipation of the fall of Camargo. The rebels claim that Generals Martenez and Morango are besieging the city of San Luis Potosi, and hold a portion of that State. Generals Guerrer and Garcia de la Codera are besieging the city of Salsteios, and hold nearly all that State. General Bessego holds Durango, and sent 1,000 men to occupy Chihuahua. The States of Coahuila and Nuevo Leon are held by Trevino, while Querodo invades the State of Tamaulipas to capture all the towns on the frontier.

It is evident that this city will soon be surrounded by the revolutionists, if not taken.

GERMANY.

BRAZILIAN DIFFICULTY SETTLED.

BERLIN, January 20.—The North German Gazette says relations have been resumed between Germany and Brazil on a most friendly footing. The difficulty between the two countries is settled, owing to the conciliatory behavior of Brazil.

CONTRADICTION.

The Colombian Consul here contradicts the statement made by the New York Handels Zeitung that the Minister of Colombia at Washington had applied to the American Government for a postponement of the payment of $142,000, the amount due the United States from his government. The Consul says Colombia owes the United States nothing, and her financial condition is most satisfactory.

AUSTRIA.

CROATIAN DIET DISSOLVED.

VIENNA, January 19.—The Diet of Croatia, having ignored the compromise by the joint Governments of Austria and Hungary, has been dissolved.

TRADE MARK CONVENTION.

VIENNA, January 20.—The committee of the Reichsrath, to which the subject was referred, have recommended the ratification of the Trade Mark Convention between Austria and the United States.

INDIA.

REBELS CAPTURED.

CALCUTTA, January 19.—Ramsing and other chiefs of the recent revolt have been captured. Their followers will be executed on the 29th inst.

SPAIN.

PRESIDENT OF THE CORTES.

MADRID, January 21.—Senor Herrera is the candidate of the Ministerial party for President of the Cortes.

LEGISLATURES.

Ohio.

COLUMBUS, January 20.—In the Senate a bill was passed authorizing the School Boards to make such rules as they may think proper to secure the vaccination of pupils attending the public schools; also, a bill authorizing cities of the second class with a population of less than ten thousand to levy an additional tax for sanitary purposes. Bills were introduced to secure to mining associations the right to condemn property for railroads to and from the mines; also, a supplementary bill to the act providing for assignments in trust so as to require a notice of assignment to be given to the creditors.

COLUMBUS, OHIO, January 21.—In the House bills were passed allowing prosecuting attorneys to remain with the grand juries during their sittings. Bills were introduced to allow in proceedings in condemnation of property by corporations the challenge of jurors as in other cases, and if a corporation fail within ten days to take the property at the price fixed by the jury the Probate Court is requested to collect the costs and expense, including the attorney's fees by execution as at law; to increase the fees of witnesses in criminal and civil cases before the Common Pleas Court from seventy-five cents to one dollar and a half; to repeal that section of the act relative to ditches which gives to county auditors authority to let contracts for constructing ditches; to provide for the election of a board of trustees and visitors representing the alumni of a university or college; to enable township trustees to make larger tax levies for township purposes; to amend the act regulating life insurance companies, so as to compel foreign companies to forego their right to remove cases to the United States Courts. A resolution was adopted donating to the Chicago Law Institute copies of Ohio reports, statutes, &c. A resolution was adopted authorizing the distribution of copies of the geological report among American, English, German and French magazines and papers devoted to mining and sciences.

Nebraska.

OMAHA, January 20.—In the Nebraska Legislature the Senate came to a dead lock last night over the bill donating 10,000 acres of land to a company for the purpose of developing the salt springs at Lincoln, the vote being six for and six against the bill. After being in session all night, a recess was taken for breakfast, and at 9 A. M., after much wrangling, President Hascall declared the Senate adjourned to December 31st, 1872. Six Senators left the Chamber. The remaining six pronounced the adjournment illegal, and ordered the arrest of the seceding members. They were put under arrest by the Sergeant-at-Arms, but afterwards released, and have departed for their homes. The six remaining Senators are still in session, and expect the arrival of a seventh member, who has been absent, when they will have a quorum.

The House met at 11 A. M. A motion was made to adjourn to December 31, which was amended to adjourn to Monday next, which was carried. At this time there arrived a message from Governor James, proroguing the Legislature. Before it could be read, however, the Speaker declared the House adjourned.

The following appeal to the people is being circulated: "The bubble of corruption has bursted! The Senate adjourned! The House prorogued! Messrs. Thomas, Crapsey, Abbott, Sheldon, Metz and Hascall have been under arrest! The people of Lincoln and Nebraska City hold indignation meetings to-night. Will Omaha join?" Signed, many citizens of Lincoln.

RAILROADS.

Marietta and Pittsburgh.

A telegram to the Cincinnati Commercial from Cambridge, O., on the 18th inst. says: Work was commenced to-day on Marietta and Pittsburgh Railroad, at this point, and the assurance is given that the road will be pushed to an an early completion. The President, General A. J. Warner, and those connected with him in this enterprise, are all gentlemen of large capital and long experience in railroads, and the people along the line of this route have the utmost confidence in their ability to fulfill their engagements. The road is already completed and in successful running operation from Marietta to Caldwell, in Noble County, a distance of thirty-five miles, and, with a continuance of the present zeal manifested by those having the work in charge, cars will be running through from Marietta to Cambridge by midsummer next, and to the Pan-handle road within the present year.

NEW ORLEANS, LITTLE ROCK & ST. LOUIS.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., January 20.—The New Orleans, Little Rock and St. Louis Railroad Company was incorporated today. The design of the company is to build a railroad from this city to Alexandria, thereby connecting St. Louis and Little Rock on nearly an air line with New Orleans.

ST. LOUIS.

Wendell Phillips' Lecture.

ST. LOUIS, January 20.—Wendell Phillips delivered his lecture on "The Political Situation" at Mercantile Library Hall, to-night, to a very large audience. He said that he regarded civil service reform as at present contemplated as magnificent delusions; that he did not expect to live to see one iota of it put into practice; that he had no more confidence in that great soldier (meaning Grant) than he had in any other carpet-bagger who had gone South, and that he believed the nominee of the Republican party, whoever he may be, will be elected President. He did not touch upon ordinary political affairs, but entered into a philosophical discussion of the relations of wages to wealth, labor to capital, the great and growing power of railroad corporations, cheap money, the government of great cities, trades unions, internationals, &c., &c. The lecture was well received and many sentiments expressed heartily applauded.

Senatorial Nomination Accepted.

PHILADELPHIA, January 20.—A. McClure accepts the Republican Reform nomination for this Senatorial District to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Connell. There will be no Democratic candidate.

ALEXIS.

Missouri.

ST. LOUIS, January 20.—A programme for the reception and entertainment of the Grand Duke at Jefferson City on Tuesday next has been arranged. He will be met at Sedalia by the legislative committee. On his arrival at Jefferson City a salute is to be fired in honor of the party, then driven to the capitol, where the two Houses will be in joint session, with the Governor and State officers present. The Governor will bid him welcome and introduce him to the session, and afterwards to the State officers. The Senate will then return, the Duke and party remaining to witness the transaction of business. They will also visit the Senate, and then be conveyed to the Madison House, where they will dine with the committee. After dinner they will visit the Governor's mansion, and leave at four o'clock for St. Louis.

KANSAS.

TOPEKA, January 20.—The arrangements for the reception of Alexis on next Monday are completed. The Reception Committee is composed of a dozen members of the Legislature, who will receive the Duke at the depot, Lieutenant Governor Elder being spokesman. The party will be escorted to the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where the first floor is being engaged therefor. At 1:30 the Governor will receive the party in his rooms in the capitol. At two o'clock the two Houses will be in joint session, and the party will be received by Speaker Cobb. The joint session will dissolve and the House will go on with its usual business, to show the Duke how the representatives of a free people transact business. It is as well to state that the business that will be transacted will not be in relation to the alleged frauds in the Senatorial election last winter. At three P. M. the party will return to the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where a collation will be spread for them, the Governor and State officers and the Reception Committee. The party will leave at five P. M. for the east.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, January 21.—Mr. James Lee, of the Lee's Fire Arms Company, has just finished and expressed to Alexis, at St. Louis, one of his celebrated guns as a souvenir of the Duke's recent visit to this city. The stock is made of a fine piece of mottled black walnut of Wisconsin growth, on which is carved the State coat of arms. The barrel is heavily plated with silver. On one side of the gun is the word "Alexis" in German text, inlaid with gold, and on the top of the stock is a piece of solid gold, on which is engraved the Russian coat of arms. Mr. Lee has just patented a new army gun, to be tried at the next Government trial, requiring but four movement to load and discharge, capable of firing twenty-five times per minute, which the Russian party tried while here and pronounced superior to anything they had yet tried. The inventor claims great superiority over the needle, Chassepot, Remington and Peabody.

COLORADO.

DENVER, January 20.—The Grand Ducal party reached Kit Carson at eight o'clock this morning, where a buffalo hunt had been arranged, cavalry horses having been sent from Fort Wallace. At 11 A. M. the Grand Duke, Generals Sheridan, Custer and others started for the buffalo, which were in sight of the town. The Grand Duke killed the first buffalo. About fifty buffaloes were killed. The Grand Duke killed five, Gen. Custer three, and Sheridan two. The hunt was a grand success, and all were in the highest spirits. The Ducal party leave Kit Carson at 10 A. M. to-morrow for Topeka.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI, January 20.—A rumor is afloat to-night, which seems well founded, to the effect that Clifton, a wealthy suburb of Cincinnati, has tendered Grand Duke Alexis a reception by telegraph, and that Mr. Henry Robasco is to entertain him. Cincinnati has made no move in this matter.

KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, KY., January 21.—The Grand Duke and party are expected to come by the Louisville and Mammoth Cave Railway on their way South during the latter part of this week or the first of next. Arrangements are making to give him a splendid reception and the grandest ball at the Galt House ever witnessed in this city.

NEW ORLEANS.

Warmothites Triumphant.

NEW ORLEANS, January 20.—There was some excitement to-day owing to a concentration of Metropolitan police in the vicinity of the Mechanics Institute.

All the Carterite Senators took their seats in the State House. A resolution declaring the late extra session legal, consequently confirming Pinckback's election as President and Lieutenant Governor, was adopted by a vote of 17 to 16—Pinckback having the casting vote. This action was made final, and is regarded as a decided triumph for the Warmothites.

HELD TO BAIL.

The grand jury found a true bill against Lieutenant Governor Pinchback, Senator Butler and others, for shooting with intent to kill and wounding Major Chester on New Year's day. They were held in $1,500 bail each.

CONFLICT IMMINENT.

NEW ORLEANS, January 21.—Carter issued an address to the people, stating that he will, on Monday, at 11:30 A. M., through sergeants-at-arms, proceed to remove from the House of Representatives and Mechanics Institute and the approaches thereto the Metropolitan police and armed men, and place said House, with its organization, as it existed on January 4th intact. He requests the people to close their places of business and keep off the streets in the vicinity. Warmoth having ignored Speaker Carter, this programme indicates a conflict. The Carterites are said to have two thousand men.

CHICAGO.

Raid on Gambling Dens.

CHICAGO, ILL., January 21.—A strong police force sallied out last night and made their way into two gambling dens and captured thirty-eight gamblers. They were all taken before a police magistrate and each held in three hundred dollars bail.

A NOVEL and simple measure for the prevention of frauds in voting has been devised by J. Walter Stoops of Brooklyn. A book of printed forms is provided, each being numbered, and a space being left for the name and address of the voter. A coupon correspondingly numbered is attached, and this is given to the voter when he registers, to be presented when he casts his vote. The common trick of repeaters voting upon another man's name is thus prevented. This is not unlike the method of registration of the plebiscitum in Paris.

A CONNECTICUT clergyman recently announced from the pulpit that he had heard a man say that he had read the Bible through in sixty hours. Determined to ascertain whether the individual told the truth, he set about it himself, and read the whole of it aloud to his wife in fifty-nine hours and something over thirty minutes. He read sometimes an hour and sometimes two hours a day, keeping the exact time with the result indicated.

IT is stated that it is contemplated at the Navy Department to request Congress to authorize the construction of ten new steam sloops of war, carrying thirteen guns each, and seven propellors. Many of the vessels built during the war were of white oak timber, and the Government finds they are decaying very rapidly, and will cost enormously for repairs. It will, therefore, endeavor to adopt a better plan for building the new vessels.

—A Scranton special says that the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company have no intention at present to place their men on half time. Some excitement had been created in the town on the report that such a step was contemplated.

—In Lakeville, Mass., on Friday, Chas. A. Leach, a dentist, while laboring under delirium tremens, shot Thomas Bump, John Capeless, Daniel Swift and H. W. Coombes. The two first named are supposed to be mortally wounded.

Custom House Investigation.

THE CATACAZY UNPLEASANTNESS.

Bank Suspended.

NEW YORK, January 20, 1872.

CUSTOM HOUSE INVESTIGATION.

At the Custom House investigation today, Williams testified that it is customary for steamship lines to give Inspectors from ten to twenty dollars as gratuity for work done when they deserve it. An order has prevented this for a long time. Mr. Grinnell gave an order against it.

Custom House Storekeeper Wilson testified that he had no knowledge of an arrangement between Leet & Co., Inspectors, to hurry goods to the store.

A letter was read from Kemble, of Boston, stating that he was taxed sixty dollars gold for two silk dresses brought by him from abroad in August last. He failed to obtain receipts for his money from the officers, and wrote the facts to the Secretary of the Treasury, who replied that the customs officers were not required by the regulations to give receipts for duties.

The following colloquy then ensued:

Senator Pratt—Is it your understanding that the Secretary of the Treasury received money?

Senator Bayard—I don't believe he knew anything about it. I think it simply an outrageous act of plunder.

Senator Pratt—Do you think this man intended to smuggle these goods?

Senator Bayard—I don't know the man; but I don't believe he did. He pointed out the goods to the inspectors.

Senator Casserly—It seems to me we can obtain nothing from the Custom House in relation to these charges. They are all Republicans, friends of the administration. Not one of them has stepped forward to assist us in the discovery of alleged frauds.

Senator Bayard—On the contrary, they are called to defend themselves.

Senator Stewart—This is hardly relevant to the issue, although it may be pursued to advantage at another time.

It was finally ordered to refer the communication to the Collector, and ask him to explain it.

Carroll, a weigher, and Thompson's foreman, testified that all the men who had given evidence against Thompson for not weighing soda ash and blasting powder were themselves the cause of this unusual dereliction of duty. They refused to work. As the bark could not be delayed, he had to take the average weight from the heads of the casks.

WATCHING DEVELOPMENTS.

A Washington dispatch to the Herald says: President Grant is anxiously watching the developments by the Custom House Investigating Committee in this city, and that he is open in his denunciations of the violations of law which are reported. If Leet & Co. do not disprove the charges against them, a general cleaning out of the culprits will be ordered. The friends of his administration in Washington desire to have testimony elicited showing that the President has no personal or particular interest in Leet; that he had at one time directed Murphy to remove him. But Senators Stewart and Howe, it is said, decided not to allow the presentation of that testimony, they regarding the case of Leet & Porter and the President as one that they do not care to go into any evidence which would justify the President at the expense of the two former.

THE CATACAZY UNPLEASANTNESS.

Minister Catacazy, who sailed to-day for Europe in the White Star Line steamer Atlantic, stated in an interview that he hoped the good sense of the Russian and American people would prevent any rupture of the cordial relations that might otherwise follow from the late unpleasantness.

EIGHTH NATIONAL BANK.

The report of the committee of investigation into the affairs of the Eighth National Bank shows a deficit of $150,000, not including a claim of $120,000 lent the bank when in need. The bank had not been examined by the Government Examiner for two years and a half.

WORKINGMEN'S UNION.

At a meeting of the Workingmen's Union, last evening, it was stated that several unions had recently withdrawn, on the ground that the organization was a political one. Some twenty unions, however, were represented.

BANK MESSENGER ROBBED.

John Russell, Messenger of the Metropolitan Bank, was robbed in the street about noon to-day of twenty-three thousand dollars in gold certificates and a quantity of notes and bonds. No arrests.

CITY BONDS.

City Chamberlain Palmer says there are five million dollars belonging to the city on deposit in Broadway banks that the Comptroller is at liberty to draw to pay the police their back wages.

INDIGNANT DEPOSITORS.

The excitement around the suspended Market Bank this afternoon was very great. The crowd was indignant. The depositors blocked up the street and indulged in vigorous threats against the officials.

BROOKLYN WATER BOARD.

The Brooklyn Committee of Fifty state that the Water Board of that city has unnecessarily involved an expense of about four hundred thousand dollars in connection with the construction of the reservoir.

ERIE.

Erie stockholders representing the sum of about thirty millions have issued a petition to the Legislature remonstrating against the present management of the road, asking the repeal of the Classification bill.

UNPAID LABORERS.

Controller Green says that unless the salary and wages bill, now before the Legislature, is speedily passed, 10,000 men will have to find relief in the poor house, to whom the city owes money.

UNFOUNDED RUMORS.

Unfounded rumors were current yesterday of an intended run on the Bleecker Street Savings Bank and German Savings Bank.

VACCINATION.

The principals of some of the public schools to-day made a request for the vaccination of the children under their charge.

SMALL-POX.

Twenty-five deaths from small-pox occurred during the week. Ten cases were reported yesterday.

GRAND JURY DISCHARGED.

The Grand Jury of the Oyer and Terminer Court was discharged to day.

DEFICIT.

The deficit in the Market Savings Bank, which was closed this morning, is $100,000.

BANK CLOSED.

The Market Savings Bank was closed this morning and a receiver appointed.

ARRIVED.

The steamer Ville de Paris, from Brest, has arrived.

NEW YORK, January 21, 1872.

AN ALLEGED JOB.

The Times relates the history of an alleged job in connection with the old line of stages, compelled by carrying out the plans for the improvement of upper Broadway to all side streets, for which the city paid $8,000 under judgment of a referee, and confirmed by Judge Barnard. The Times charges that fourteen persons conspired and divided the plunder.

NEWARK TAMMANY.

The Herald states that the city of Newark has been swindled by contractors out of a large amount of money by frauds very similar to the recent Tammany affairs, and mentions cases of about $7,000 for an alleged rock excavation for a sewer where no rock existed; of raising a charge of another rock excavation from 1,000 to 2,300 yards; of changing an assessment from $4.20 per foot to $6 43; in raising the contract for constructing a sewer some $1,000, and raising another sewer bill by extras from $14,000 to $40,000. In the latter case a suit is pending to recover the whole amount.

MARKET SAVINGS BANK.

The Herald says the Market Savings Bank was forced to suspend in consequence of the Secretary entrusting one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars in Tennessee bonds to Heizer's Sons, Broad street brokers, for sale. They disposed of the bonds and then announced that they were unable to pay, as they had met heavy losses on the Stock Exchange. One of the officers of the bank is said to have used a considerable portion of the bank's funds on an infallible point in Wall street.

CITY REFORM.

At a meeting of the German Reform Central Committee, last evening, Oswald Ottendorfer offered a resolution, which was passed, opposing the passage of the bills which have been recently introduced in the Legislature, conferring extraordinary and unprecedented power on Controller Green, and asking that the Board of Audit be composed of citizens in no way connected with the city departments.

FIRES.

The works of the Crossman Manufacturing Company, near Perth Amboy, were burned on Friday. Loss $20,000; insured for $12,000.

The residence of James Croaks, at Paterson, New Jersey, was burned yesterday. Loss $20,000; insured for $9,000.

JERSEY CITY BONDS.

The Jersey City Board of Finance yesterday sold three quarters of a million water bonds, relieving the most pressing needs of the city, and authorizing the sale of a million at par, for which an offer was received from London.

BURNED TO DEATH.

The old colored woman, Aunt Phillis, said to have been a spy in the federal service among the Tories of Revolutionary times, was burned to death on Friday night at Bricktown.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING.

A young man named Alfred Buckley accidentally shot his mother while examining a pistol at 369 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, to day. The wound is probably fatal.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Bergh has determined to interfere with no more pigeon matches at present, but to rest his case on indictments now pending against Paine and Bogardus.

ILLNESS OF TILDEN.

Samuel J. Tilden, owing to illness, has been unable to leave his residence during the past week. He expects soon to take his seat in the Legislature.

STRIKE.

The McKay Locomotive Works, in Jersey City, have stopped work on account of a strike.

LOUISVILLE.

Destructive Fire.

LOUISVILLE, January 21.—At four o'clock this morning the pipe foundry of Dennis Long & Co., on Fulton street, near Preston, was destroyed by fire. Loss about $175,000; insurance only $10,000.

This was one of the most extensive pipe foundries in the United States. It had a capacity of 2,700 tons of metal annually. The main building was eighty by two hundred and ten feet, with wings, the whole covering nearly one hundred and thirty by two hundred and ten feet, all covered with slated roof. The foundry was being run to its utmost capacity, having extensive contracts for pipe for the Government and for the cities of St. Louis, Chicago, Memphis, Rock Island, Indianapolis, Evansville, Sedalia, etc. Nearly all the costly machinery was destroyed. The foundry was located where there was great difficulty in getting water. There was no cistern convenient. The engines were taken to the river and the hose had to be spliced in order to reach the burning building. There was considerable wind, blowing the sparks and burning brands towards a lumber yard and a number of frame buildings east of the foundry, and that portion of the city was in great danger for a while, but the firemen succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames and saving some of the machinery in the rear portion of the foundry building. The latter was supposed to be entirely fireproof; hence the small amount of insurance.

Last year Mr. Long lost $80,000 by the burning of his machine works on Ninth street. He also lost $42,000 by the Stonewall disaster. His partner is his son-in-law, Samuel A. Miller. The losses of both men by fire the past eight years foot up nearly half a million. The firm are the leading proprietors of the pipe foundry in Columbus, O. Long & Co. own the Louisville Pipe Foundry on Ninth street, in which the contracts will be fulfilled, causing no delay.

The work of cleaning away the debris, preparatory to rebuilding, will be commenced early in the morning. The fire was the result of an accident. It was discovered by persons outside, the watchman in the building being fast asleep.

FEARFUL TRAGEDY.

At ten o'clock this morning a young man named Theodore Thorne, in a fit of insanity shot his sister, Mrs. Green, and her two daughters, Wilhelmina, aged two, and Larmina, aged eight. The former was shot in the stomach, and will probably die. The latter was wounded in the hip, and will recover. Thorne also attempted to shoot his brother-in-law. He then put the pistol to his own head and fired. The bullet glanced, inflicting a painful, though not dangerous, wound. Thorne is in the hospital. He will be arraigned in the city court in the morning, when an application will be made to send him to a lunatic asylum. All are respectable Germans. Green keeps a grocery store in Clay street, and lives in a room above where the tragedy occurred.

UTAH.

Admission as a State.

SALT LAKE, January 20.—A bill for the election of delegates to a convention for admission as a State was finally passed and sent to the Governor. A provision was included submitting the constitution to the people.

U. S. ATTORNEY.

A petition is in circulation praying the Governor to retain Geo. Bates as United States District Attorney.

MINING.

Heavy contracts were made to-day for the purchase of mining property, the consideration being nearly one and a half millions. There is unusual activity in mining transfers. Large numbers of English capitalists are looking for furnaces and mills. The general mining prospects are exceedingly favorable.

SAN FRANCISCO, January 20.—A military review in honor of the Japanese embassy took place this afternoon. Iawauka, the chief embassador, was ill, and unable to attend. General Yamada, Minister of War, and suite, were on the platform with Major General Cobb and staff, and returned the salutes as the different corps moved past. Yesterday there was an excursion to Mare Island, Alcatras, &c., and a banquet on the steamer Capitol. To-night there will be a Zouave drill by the San Francisco Cadets, and a visit to the theatre.

The embassy is composed mostly of very young men, but it is conceded by every body that for courtesy, good breeding and quick intelligence, they will equal the same number of Caucasians from any nation of Europe or America.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—Two hundred and nine deaths from small pox were reported in Philadelphia last week.

—On the night of the 18th one-half of the town of Montecello, Drew county, Ark., was destroyed by fire.

—At Bedford, Mass., yesterday, seven boys attempted to cross the Ascushinet river on the ice. The ice broke and two were drowned.

—A Washington dispatch says it is understood that General Sickles is to testify before a Senate committee that he saw President Lincoln sign the McCarrahan patent which was found recorded in a London office.

Pronunciamento by Carter.

WASHINGTON, January 20, 1872.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

The Internal Revenue receipts for the month, up to to-day, were $7,234,165; grand total for the fiscal year, $72,767,865.

THE LATE SUICIDE.

Miss Titus, whose suicide here was reported yesterday, was born and educated in Detroit, Michigan.

TO BE INSTALLED.

Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, of Chicago, is to be installed to-morrow, as successor to Dr. Ewer to the rectorship of Christ Episcopal Church.

STORY DENIED.

The story of the attempt to assassinate a St. Louis student at St. John's College is denied by the President of the institution. The statement arose from the fact that an unknown man recently endeavored to burglarize the society.

TAMMANY SOCIETY.

It is understood that the chief charge against the directors of the Tammany Society is that they have violated the clause providing that the yearly value of the estate of the society is not to exceed five thousand dollars. The property of the society now rents at thirty-six thousand a year.

TERRITORIAL OFFICERS.

The Territorial delegates waited upon the President to-day and made a request that hereafter selections for Territorial officers be made from the citizens of the Territories. Mr. Cleggett stated that at present three-fourths of such officers were from without the Territories. The President said he had long been of the opinion that most, if not all, of the officers of the Territories should have been chosen from their citizens; that he had suggested to the Civil Service Commission the incorporation of a provision in their regulations requiring appointments, excepting judges, Indian superintendents and agents, to be so made.

INDIAN VISITORS.

An Indian delegation of Cherokees, Creeks and Choctaws called on the President to-day. The Cherokees were represented by W. B. Ross, C. N. Van and W. P. Adair; the Creeks by chief Samuel Chocote; Pleasant Porter, John Moore and Sanford Berryman; and the Choctaws by Governor Pickelyn. They informed the President that they were opposed to Congressional legislation which proposed for them a territorial government. They were satisfied with such institutions as they now had in the Indian country. They desired to be let alone to work out their own destiny. The Indians had confidence in the President, and were satisfied with his policy. They incidentally stated the progress they had made, referring to the institutions of learning, the good order and thrift which prevailed among the several nations. The President received them kindly, and said as far as he was concerned the territorial government shall not be extended over the Cherokee country unless they want one. He expressed his gratification at their social progress, and assured them that he would at all times do whatever lay in his power to promote their prosperity. The delegation retired, much pleased with the interview.

WASHINGTON, January 21, 1872.

THE NEW ORLEANS WAR.

New Orleans, January 21.—Hon. J. R. West, Washington—Yesterday and last night a hand bill was distributed throughout the city as follows: "To Arms!" "To Arms!" "To Arms!" "To Arms!" "Colored men to the front! Warmoth's slaves at Mechanics' Institute pretended to-day to expel Antoine Adolph, Burch Wilson, Rearson Williams, Hureard Gaddis, John Latt and other colored members of the House of Representatives. Warmoth will next attempt to remove Ingraham and Antoine from the Senate. Rally on Saturday at ten o'clock at the corner of Rampart and Canal streets, and let those who have dared to trample on your rights as freemen and citizens tremble until the marrow of their bones shakes. Let the cry be 'down with Warmoth and his thieving crew,' 'Rally,' 'rally,' 'rally,' 'liberty or death.' In this morning's papers, the Times, National Republican and in the Bee, published in both the French and English languages, appeared the following: Whereas, this violent and illegal action of said H. C. Warmoth has so far intimidated and embarrassed the General Assembly that a quorum of the House can not be obtained, and the necessary reforms demanded by the people have been defeated and the business of the community obstructed, and the public peace threatened and disturbed, and a Republican form of Government practically and substantially destroyed; and, whereas, there is no solution of the difficulties nor aversion of the dangers to the liberties by usurpation and a revolutionary violence of said H. C. Warmoth, except in the assertion of the legislative department of the Government, through its proper officers, of its independence and rights; therefore, in accordance with the constitution and laws of the State of Louisiana, and of the instructtions of the House of Representatives, approved by sixteen members of the Senate of said State, and G. W. Carter, Speaker of the House of Representatives, I notify all whom it may concern, that I shall, on Monday, the 22d, at 11:30 A. M., through the sergeants at arms of the House over which I preside, proceed to remove from the Hall of the House of Representatives and approaches thereto the Metropolitan police and armed men now acting under the illegal order and direction of said H. C. Warmoth, and place said House, with its organization as it existed at the hour of adjournment on Jan. 4th last, intact in its hall in Mechanics Institute, and hereby notify all members of the House that no violence or indignity will be practiced upon them nor intimidation by the sergeants-at-arms or otherwise to prevent them from regulating the organization of the House of Representatives, as provided for by the Constitution and laws of the State and rules of the House. I would also warn all police and other armed men now acting in violation of law by order of said H. C. Warmoth against resisting the mandates of the House in the premises, and would notify them that no violence is to be used against them except in case of said illegal resistance, and the citizens are informed that no damage will be done to private property and interference had with the executive office, and they are respectfully requested for the time being to close their places of business and to keep off the street in the vicinity of Mechanics Institute, as this measure, legal in its character, as a last resort, is taken for the protection of public rights and the preservation of a republican government in the State of Louisiana. The question before our people is no longer a simple one of reform, but a grave issue is presented by the revolutionary acts of the Governor, and that is whether they will quietly permit him to subvert the State Government and destroy the independence of the legislative department thereof by the most violent and revolutionary acts. The premises considered, we earnestly invite the citizens, irrespective of race or party, to organize and arm themselves as well as they may be able, and report in force in the neigborhood of 207 Canal street, where they will be provided with the necessary commissions and sworn in as assistant sergeants-at-arms, and thus with law be prepared to protect their rights. I want a force so potent in numbers and so representative of the community as will preclude bloodshed and insure abstinence on the part of the Executive from further interference with the General Assembly. You are informed to meet at Rampart street, near Canal, at ten o'clock on Monday morning, when the necessary orders will be given. Receiving our powers from the people, and desiring to exercise the same in their interest in this hour of peril to their liberties, we invoke their presence and support as only protection to the State against the crimes and encroachments of a recreant and traitorous Executive.—Signed, G. W. Carter, Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of Louisiana."

[Signed] H. C. WARMOTH.

EXTENSION OF TIME.

The House Committee on Public Lands have agreed to report favorably on bills for the extension of time for the completion of the Portage Lake and Lake Superior Ship Canal, and Green Bay, Sturgeon Bay and Lake Michigan Ship Canal in Wisconsin. The land grants dependent on the proposed extension of time include several hundred thousand acres of pine barrens, valuable mainly for their timber in the district of country recently burned over, and the committee are largely influenced in their action by a desire to afford employment to the inhabitants of Peshtego and other places in the desolated districts in cutting this timber.

CLAIMS COMMISSION.

In the joint commission of the United States and Mexico, on Saturday, the commissioners announced opinions in forty-one American and six Mexican claims, all of which they rejected for various reasons. The following important order was announced: That the commissioners now give notice that all claims by the United States versus Mexico, and all claims by the latter Government versus the former, not disposed of before that date, will, on the first day of April next, be entered and heard; whereupon the Government will proceed immediately to dispose of them in obedience to the requirements of the convention.

THE WEATHER TO-DAY.

The lowest barometer will probably move on Monday north-eastward over Tennessee to West Virginia; clear weather and westerly winds prevail in the South Atlantic States; the snow and cloud on the lower lakes generally clear away; a falling barometer and threatening weather extend south-eastward to Michigan and Missouri. Brisk but not dangerous winds are anticipated to-night for the Middle Atlantic coast.

NEW YORK CUSTOM HOUSE.

The officers on duty at the Executive Mansion stand ready with a mass of verbal and documentary evidence, which will be presented to the Custom House Investigating Committee upon its return to Washington, and which, it is said, will completely and unanswerably refute any testimony or reports detrimental to their character.

WAR CLAIMS.

The amount refunded to States for expenses in raising volunteers from 1861 to 1872 is thirty nine millions. The balance claimed on suspended accounts is five millions.

ANNEXATION.

It was said recently at the Executive Mansion that the President does not intend again to urge the purchase of San Domingo.

MR. EDWARDS has again placed us under obligations for Legislative documents—Thanks.

A NEW ocean cable between England and New York city has been determined on, and will be laid during the present year.

PROCEEDINGS in bankruptcy are to be commenced by the City Solicitor of Philadelphia, on the instructions of Councils, against the city treasury defaulters.

THE prejudice against vaccination, we are told, has no existence in Philadelphia—probably because every other person has had the small-pox by this time.

ON WEDNESDAY next a Convention will be held in Cincinnati of those persons who are favorable to the recognition of God in the Constitution. A more general recognition of God in the country would be preferable.

THE LEGISLATURE by joint resolution of both houses, has agreed to adjourn sine die on the 28th of March next. Parties having private bills to present should send them on at once else they will never be acted upon, public measures taking precedence.

THE modest little bill of $36,000 has been presented to the Auditor General for the refitting and decorating of the halls of the Senate and House of Representatives at Harrisburg, which he refuses very properly to pay until every item is audited by the Finance Committee of the Legislature. In these days of Tammany frauds and thieving too much care cannot be taken in settling the accounts of contractors.

VARIOUS CHARGES having been made against the conduct and management of the Philadelphia mint by persons inimical to the President, Secretary Boutwell appointed the Comptroller of the Treasury, Hon. R. W. Taylor, to examine into the truth or falsity of them. He reports as follows: "After listening to the testimony I find that there is nothing in the evidence which in the slightest degree impeaches the character of Gov. Pollock, the Director, or of Mr. Snowden, the Chief Coiner, in personal honor or official integrity."

WE have received letters from our members at Harrisburg and others, wishing to ascertain our views with reference to the new fee bill recently sent to the Legislature. We stated only a short time ago, that our judgment was clearly against any changes in the present fee bill, except those made necessary in order to relieve Mr. Ross, our worthy prothonotary. In this opinion we are joined by Mr. Ross himself, Mr. Lambert, our County Controller, who has carefully noted the practical workings of the present bill during the last six months, and is perfectly competent to give an opinion, and by the community generally, so far as we have been able to hear from them. We have yet to find one citizen who demands or suggests the repeal of the bill, but we know numbers of them who urge us to oppose any repeal, or any change even, except that named above. Repeal the State tax on writs, and the income of the prothonotary's office will meet every demand made upon it. We inform our members at Harrisburg that the people will not endorse any other changes in the fee bill.

THE arrival of an Embassy from the Empire of Japan, charged with the important duty of negotiating a commercial treaty with the United States and other nations, marks an era in the history of that country, which will have a wonderful effect upon its industries and commerce, and in no small degree will benefit our own.

Nothing more truly and certainly marks the progressive tendencies of the age in which we live, than this Embassy and the similar one from China which startled the world a few years ago. These nations have been shut in from cordial relationship with the rest of the world, for thousands of years, and it has been reserved for our day and generation to break this seclusion, and—by humane and honorable treatment—cause the denizens of the Celestial Empires to visit, and establish commercial relations with us.

The fears or prejudices so long nourished by the Asiatic against the people of the outside world, are at last dissipated through the labors of our missionaries, assisted by the blandishments of commerce. This is but the beginning, and will result in great benefit to all nations.

WE don't know, nor can we imagine where our Virgin alley cotemporary would get its inspiration, if it did not continually seek, and find it in the productions of our brains. Almost every day our articles are reproduced in its columns, with copious commentaries, which greatly tend to bring out their strong points, and assist us, in a small way of course, and we fear upon barren soil, in disseminating the great truths which underlie our National system, and which find for their true exponent the triumphant and progressive Republican party.

We are really sometimes led to regret, that our sweet brother down among the Virgins, does not occupy that proud and prominent position among the leading journals of the day, once frankly accorded it; for as age creeps over its withered limbs, it finds it utterly impossible to hide its purturbed spirit, and its cross-grained, cranky, not to say rebellious disposition, and thus greatly tends to restrict its power, by cramping its vitality, souring its old-time sunny manners, and cutting down its circulation. Were this not so, we say, we might hope to have better assistance from our Democratic cotemporary in spreading the truths of Republicanism. It has the will to help us, but unfortunately lacks the means. However, we duly appreciate the assistance rendered, and shall continue to furnish the ideas for our dear lack brain neighbor.

THE Titusville people are kicking against the pricks in following Hon. H. Bucher Swoope, United States prosecuting attorney for Western Pennsylvania, with their anger and vengeance, because in discharging his duties he let drop some words in the interest of the Government, which were construed as an insult to the royal oil family. The United States never had a more faithful officer than he, and the respectably signed petition of the citizens of Venango county for his removal is an ill timed, hasty and unwarranted document, conceived more in the spirit of revenge than that to benefit the general public. Mr. Swoope is one of the few men who loses his own individuality when acting as a sworn public officer, and cares little whether he makes a friend of this man or a foe of that man while discharging his duty. His fearlessness has paid the United States very well, for we venture to say no other District Attorney in the land can present a better record so far as the bringing to justice of revenue offenders is concerned, whether high or low, rich or poor, influential or impotent. If past services are worthy reward, if present diligence in performing his duty earnestly, faithfully and justly are any good recommendations for a public officer, H. Bucher Swoope will be one of the last men removed from office, even should the whole people of the oil regions petition for it at the hands of the President, and the merchants of Titusville who pray for such a thing in their memorial should save their tempers and appreciate the folly of their efforts.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph speaks in the following frank terms concerning the latest "reform" movement. How is it that some men find no reason to reform anything, until they have sought and lost a nomination for office? If McClure had secured the nomination for Senator, to fill the honored seat of Mr. George Connell, or indeed been successful in any of the many attempts he has made to secure office, he would not now be classed among "soreheads."

A. K. M'CLURE TO BE THE DEMOCRATIC REFORM CANDIDATE.

The Patriot of this morning advocates the selection of A. K. M'Clure as the Democratic reform candidate for Senator from the Fourth district. This is certainly right and proper; he deserves a special recognition from that party. Having been the secret spy of the Democratic leaders the past year, he deserves to be rewarded by them. The treachery of this man M'Clure lost the Republicans the Senate last year. Through the secret working of a powerful railroad influence the people of the Union Senatorial district were deprived of the services of an honorable, upright Senator; and this fall that same influence defeated an honest, upright candidate for President Judge. M'Clure has not acted with the Republican party for the past three years. He is, therefore, old enough in their ranks to be a candidate of the Democracy.

The richest part of the joke, however, is that he should aspire to run as the reform candidate. No one certainly needs more reform than this same M'Clure, having been the advocate of nearly all the bills in which corruption had been charged. We call upon the Patriot to make a clean breast of is and tell its readers what is knows about the Border Raid Bill and other measures which have been lobbied through the Legislature. Prominent gentlemen from Chambersburg have promised to furnish us with evidence, which we will lend the Patriot to refresh its memory.

We are desirous that Aleck shall be the candidate of the Democratic reform party, in which event we shall certainly behold such a "shaking of dry bones" as is seldom witnessed. Gentlemen trot him out; he is a fit leader of the broken-winded faction. Let the question be fairly put to the people of the Fourth District and Harry Gray, the Republican workingmen's candidate, need have no fear of the result.

FRANCE.

Thiers has resigned his position as pilot at the helm of the ship of state even now when the political storm in unhappy France is at its highest. Not realizing the full grandeur of a Republican form of government he has fallen a victim to his own imperiousness and self will. He has set aside his oath of office to execute the laws, and because, forsooth, the Assembly representing the people, refused to acquiesce in a pet policy promulgated by himself, has abandoned his post and bidden the government, at whose head he stood, to go to the dogs. In this stubborn act he has done as much as an Emperor would, more than a true lover of his country could. He evidently recognized in himself the absolute ruler of France, the sole guardian of her interests, the dictator bound by no law, no rule that did not find acquiesence in his own mind. He has betrayed the trust reposed in him by the people and left them to suffer the consequences of his treachery. True, it is the right of the President of a Republic to resign at any time, but in this instance the deplorable picture is presented of a chief executive rendering up his portfolio, for no other reason than that prompted by pride growing out of an over-estimate of his place and power, when he was fully aware that his act would re-disturb the politics of his country and undo effectually all the work towards again building up the prosperity of the people that has been done since Germany lifted her iron heel from the neck of France. He may have seen farther into the destiny of France than others; he may have felt that royalty would usurp his place, and an Empire stifle the life of the young Republic, and to save himself abandoned his post before danger in reality was present. Even so, his prophetic vision is no paliation for his desertion of the people when a crisis was nearing. He should have weathered the storm, and, like a true man and faithful leader, emerged from it victoriously or gone down in the honest discharge of his duty. What effect his resignation will have, God only can foresee. We incline to think that France is again on the verge of a revolution. The Government established on its own ruins after Germany had lowered the proud imperial eagle to the dust, never inspired much confidence, and few believed that it would prove permanent. It was a matter of impossibility for any great mind to cement together the conflicting elements that make the French people conspicuous, and ever since the pseudo Republic was born, a spirit of opposition to it has been developing, daily gaining strength and favor. The love for the pomp and show and style of royalty is natural to the French, and it is only the counterfeit of earnestness which causes them to cry out in favor of universal liberty and equality. They are incapable of self government, incapable of appreciating the advantages of a true Republic and free institutions. They love the tinsel of nobility and the dazzling display of royalty too well to assert their own individual sovereignity in self government. The outlook for the exiled Napoleon is good since Thiers has resigned and the troops of Germany stand threatingly on the borders of France awaiting only the word of a Bismarck to cross over and reoccupy the conquered territory. The French must do something to improve their political condition. They have tried an experimental but weak form of a Republican government, which seems nigh proving a hopeless failure, and now another effort must be made to bring things to order. Royalty sees the door opening and one dynasty or another will probably pass safely through and rebuild a throne before which the unhappy people may bow in allegiance.

—Since the above was placed in type the cable informs us that Thiers has withdrawn his resignation and will keep his place. This is wise on his part and good for the experimental Republic of France. Intrigues, however, will go on and the Government yet occupies an uncertain position.

OUR GIRLS.

One of the female lecturers of the country is propounding to puzzled audiences the social conundrum, "What shall we do with our daughters?" We confess that, at first blush, the interesting question staggers us, and we can hardly answer on sight, and yet something has to be done with the dear angels in dimity, and as there is little use in giving up, we try to give the correct answer. We know that anxious parents have tortured their brains to discover what to do with their daughters and have generally decided on no good or wise disposal of the problem. We should do better by girls in the future than has been done in the past. They should be lifted up from the trifling places they have so long occupied, made and considered more of than mere toy dolls, treated more as if they were endowed with immortal souls, as if they had brains, free will and understanding, as if they had higher duties to perform in this world, and a loftier mission to accomplish than to flourish and reign in the dazzling parrot cage of society. They should not, from prattling infancy up to blooming womanhood, be taught that they live only to catch rich beaux, and get married, but should be instructed in the ways of usefulness, in which line true happiness alone awaits them. Our daughters should be accomplished so that they may impart brilliancy and finish to all circles which they enter; but accomplishment is a word more comprehensive than is generally admitted. It means more to the sensible mind than a knowledge of the polite languages of France, Germany or Italy, generally acquired while our own stubborn English is sadly neglected, than the ability to trill a few high sounding notes in song or to manipulate the pearl keys of a piano, than the art of drawing on ivory or painting sentimental posies on canvas, or fixing Grecian patterns in embroidery,—yes, the accomplishment of the true woman means more than all these things, and could have existence in the absence of any or all of them. Girls should be sensibly educated. They should be taught the grand beauty of self-reliance, the advantages of self-independence. Far be it from us to think that drudgery in the household is their only proper vocation, but the true girl of the period should know how to wash a shirt, and make one too, how to knit and darn a pair of socks, how to cook a steak or bake a loaf of bread, how to do shopping economically, how to keep a set of books or drive a shrewd bargain, how to nurse in the sick chamber and many other common things which the most intelligent of our grandmothers never scorned to acquire, but which many modern parents think rather disgraceful than otherwise for their daughters to know anything about. Then, too, girls who must depend on their own exertions for livelihoods should be afforded opportunity to acquire knowledge of some of the lighter trades. There is no reason why some avenues of work should not be left almost entirely to them, such as telegraphing, gold beating, paper box making, cork cutting and other trades of a character requiring no large amount of physical strength and endurance, in which they might excel and gain an honorable living and maintain a respectable position in sensible society. It is because our daughters have never been properly educated, trained and cared for that tens of thousands of them are to-day starving in the sewing-rooms of the land at wages made beggarly because all of them know nothing else to do, and for the same reason our streets are filled with bawds and courtesans. If parents will only reform in the matter of raising their daughters and throw a little conscience and good, hard common sense into their way of educating and training them for usefulness in life, the social conundrum we started out with need not perplex any sensible person for an answer.

OUR EXCHANGE LIST.

No one writes or speaks good words in England without speedily finding an American audience. The Rev. George MacDonald, loved of saints and respected even by sinners, has for some years found his American constituency quite as large as his English one. American magazines have eagerly reprinted his serials—American publishers have caught at his novels And now Redpath & Fall, of the Boston Lyceum Bureau, are about to afford us an opportunity to see Mr. MacDonald in person. Under their auspices he will make a lecturing tour in the United States in the season of 1872-3. Thackeray and Dickens came—we saw and heard, and they conquered. Our memories of life are richer by so much, forever. MacDonald is an author of very different type from the two great novelists above named, though readers are not wanting who like him better than either of them. He is the story teller of soul, not sense; you do not care so much for what his people do as for what they think and say. There is so general an interest in his books that his coming among us will be one of the sensations of the next season.

I DON'T know how you are dressing in America, but the toilettes this winter in Rome are entirely unlike those of last season, and very beautiful of course, as the new fashion always is to a properly educated woman's eyes. Everything is worn, to be sure, but I notice at the various receptions, dinners, opera and plays that the bouillons, paniers, poufs and large bows of last year are replaced by great flat plaits, fringes and scarfs. The gown is straight in front; the waist is short, the corsage square in front and behind, with only shoulder straps to hold it; and on the beautiful and ugly necks alike are displayed heavy jewels, great chains and huge medallions. On the head is the Spanish comb and chous of lace and flowers, with long double ribbons hoisting their ends in the braids which hang below the waist. The back of the neck, that handsomest part of a beautiful woman, is totally hidden from view. Of course the toilettes of last year are also seen, even on the elegantes; but the above description applies to the general mode. The young women, however, look just as handsome as ever. English women show eccentricities in dress. I noticed at an evening reception, last Sunday, an English lady of rank in a most comfortable gown. The petticoat was garnet satin, short; over it was a train and sopra vesta of rich wine-colored velvet, around which ran a bordering of silver fox fur. It was more like a carriage dress, to be sure, but nevertheless it was very cosy to look at in the high-ceilinged palatial drawing-room, which no fire could warm, and in which the lamps burned dimly, the olive oil being chilled by the cold.—Roman Correspondence Philadelphia Bulletin.

THE Chicago Tribune says: It is perhaps unavoidable that a Congressman's correspondence with his constituents must be very heavy, and, as that correspondence is on public business, it is no more than right that the Government should assume the cost of the transportation of that correspondence; but it is not either right or profitable that the Government should be called upon to defray the cost of transporting libraries to their constituents, as well as the cost of the books themselves. The number of people in every Congressional District who want Congressional Globes, Department Records, annual messages, and other bulky volumes, if they can have them for nothing, is legion. If they are very desirous to have such documents, they should be willing to pay for the transportation of them. They get the volume itself gratis. The cost of sending it is but a few cents at most. Private individuals and public institutions, to whom reports of this nature are valuable, can well afford to pay this trifle. The abolition of this feature in our franking privilege would bring it very nearly to the working of the English system, in which it is confined mainly to letters. The carrying of bags, boxes, and barrels of books is done away with there, although their system is liable to abuse from the sale and gift of franks. Do away with this feature here, and it will save the Government a heavy expense in carrying, and much additional local expense in Post Offices. A visit to the Chicago Post Office, upon the arrival of any mail, will convince the most skeptical of the outrageous manner in which the franking privilege is abused. In the present insufficient space it amounts to a positive nuisance, and seriously embarasses the dispatch of letters, both in and out which have paid postal rates, and should be handled without delay.

THE Boston Post says: The United States is honored by the first visit of the extraordinary Embassy sent out from Japan. Instead of following the old route of civilization in the course of the sun, the representatives of new Japan strike boldly across the Pacific, and first touch modern progress where it has latest set up its authority. As first impressions inevitably remain the most firmly fixed, the mark of American ideas and American institutions will doubtless be placed most distinctly upon the minds of the peripatetic noblemen of the Eastern Empire, and the foothold which our system has obtained in their country will be strengthened. This will be very agreeable; but it appears that the visiting tour of this Embassy is not one of observation and instruction entirely, and that a substantial business purpose is at the foundation. Japan, in fact, is awakening to the knowledge of the necessity of driving better bargains with the family of nations which so readily offer the new member a reception. Inexperienced in diplomacy and unaccustomed to international usages, the daimios who drew up the first treaties were yet shrewd enough to provide against contingencies by reserving the power of abrogating them at will. Japan has made the advance which these Orientals foresaw, and is now ready for a revision of contracts that may be changed to its advantage, and it can hardly be doubted, will soon learn to drive an international bargain with the shrewdest.

THE opinion which has already been expressed, that the negroes who were lynched for the murder of the Park family, in Indiana, were really innocent of the crime, and that the murderer himself was one of the lynching party, is now confirmed. The statements published in the Indianapolis Journal, shortly after the lynching, formed a chain of testimony in favor of the innocence of the negroes which was irrefragable, but did not fasten the crime upon the guilty party. The latest intelligence from Clark county, where the murdered family resided, completes the testimony relative to this foul deed, shows that the murderer is known, and that the evidence against him is conclusive. He was one of the most prominent of the lynchers, and was particularly active in having the negroes hanged. Other villanies are hinted at in connection with the murder, which are to be duly investigated as soon as arrests can be made safely. It is the first duty of the Indiana authorities to see that are not only made safely but promptly, and that punishment to the extreme limit of the law should follow arrest. That State cannot afford to allow such a stigma to rest upon her name without doing something to remove it. The whole case adds point to what we have more than once said against the enormity of lynch law.

The Golden Age says: "There can be just as much reality, sincerity, and heart in the most graceful and polished deportment as in the most uncouth and repulsive. Indeed, a fine manner cannot be separated from a fine character; it must be the blossom of mind and soul or it will be merely grimace and performing; it must express the flavors of thought and sympathy and real nobility or it will be mechanical and dry. The difference between the true manner and the false is just that between the real features and flesh of the face and a mask. So all effective cultivation and manners must begin with the man. Make him generous, intelligent, refined, affable, sympathetic, and his actions will as naturally tend to politeness as the smoke curls upward. True, this is not all; but this is the alphabet of which all else is application. Having these, it needs but a constant effort to express them in the simplest, sweetest, noblest, most natural manner to acquire the best manners.

THE New York Times of Friday says: "Woman suffrage" received what may be called a check and an encouragement yesterday in the Senate. The former came from the Judiciary Committee of that body, which reported through Mr. Trumbull adversely to the request of Mrs. Beecher Hooker, to be heard before the Senate in favor of the proposition that the Fourteenth amendment gives women the right of suffrage. The committee promised to make, in writing, a report on the proposition itself. Doubtless that also will be adverse, and in our opinion, no true friend of the cause of woman should regret it. Whatever may be the merits of the movement, they must be submitted openly to the country, and not be claimed as having been acknowledged by inference and unintentionally. The encouragement came in the shape of a bill offered by Senator Wilson to give the right to vote and hold office to women in the territories. There are some reasons why the experiment of female suffrage, with conditions, might be undertaken in the Territories, but the scarcity of women themselves would be a great obstacle.

THE St. Louis Republican says: The decision of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs to make the Berlin and St. Petersburg missions first-class, with the corresponding rank and pay, is eminently sensible, and will meet the unqualified approval of the country. The relations of the United States with Germany and Russia are almost as intimate as with Great Britain and France, and every year those relations are increasing in nearness and importance; yet, until now, our ministers at London and Paris have been considered as occupying more dignified positions than the ministers at Berlin and St. Petersburg, and received $5,500 more annual salary. It is quite time this unbecoming partiality was abolished and the equality of the great nations of Europe, as far as they concern us, established and recognized.

ACCORDING to the St. Johns Telegraph, the shipbuilding and shipping interests of New Brunswick are reported to be highly prosperous. There were built last year 22 barques, 22 schooners, 8 brigantines, 4 ships, 4 steamers, 4 wood boats, and 1 sloop, giving a total of 65 vessels and 27,000 tons. All these, it was stated, were built for New Brunswick owners, and the building of the steamers seems especially to be a source of congratulation, this being altogether a new branch of trade to the ship-yards of that province, that description of vessel having formerly been built elsewhere, and the new business being regarded as an indication of a large extension in that direction. The freights, too, have been remunerative, and the low prices at which the vessels can be built has added to the profitableness of the trade. The average cost of building vessels with seven years rating is estimated at $35 per ton, or ready for sea with all provisions on board at $39 per ton, exclusive of coppering. Good vessels of a lower rating can be had, also, ready for sea, at $29 per ton. Among the vessels building just now are several of large tonnage, and in Nova Scotia ships and steamers from 1,000 to 2,000 tons are now on the stocks.

A WRITER in the Overland Monthly gives the following account of a California plantation: At Colonel W. W. Hollister's I saw something I had never seen before. The Colonel has a tea plantation, in evidently flourishing condition; but, though the plants looked thriving, and the planter believes that, in time, he will reap an abundant harvest, this is a venture I should not advise many to embark in for the present. Fortunately, Colonel Hollister has both the means and disposition to make these experiments, of which the farming community of California will some day reap the benefit. Shall I expose my ignorance by confessing that I never knew that there is really but one tea-plant? The different varieties we buy are only the result of the different manipulations in preparing it for the market. The plants themselves look to me like little, young orange trees. I saw them from one to four inches in height, and the seeds are about the size and shape of a small hazel-nut. Together with the tea, the Colonel has imported a "live Japanse," to take charge of the plantation; so that, if tea-raising succeeds at all, it certainly will here. His almond orchard, too, is on a grander scale than that of his neighbors; fifty thousand trees have already been sent out—some of them, in fact, are over two years old—and fifty thousand more are being planted. Speaking of his neighbors; they are not so very near. The Colonel has a hundred thousand acres more or less, on which to plant tea, cotton, or Canada thistles, should he so choose.

THE N. Y. Tribune says: If the truth be told, we have a discouraging illustration of the impotency of talk in the fact that while in Chicago everybody agrees that there should be no more wooden building puts up there, the carpenters are all busy in erecting any number of these tinder boxes. The newspapers protest; but who cares for the newspapers? American hurry is too potent to be stayed by any considerations of economy or safety. This building in wood keeps up the rates of insurance; but what of that? Every wooden structure diminishes the value of every brick building near it; but what of that? It does appear to be the incorrigible fault of American "smartness" that it fancies nothing to be worth doing except at a risk which would make sober men howl with apprehension. If Chicago should again, as a consequence of this recklessness, be reduced to cinders, with what face can she a second time appeal to the benevolence of the world?

MR. CHARLES LEMPRIERE writes in the Pall Mall Gazette about what he saw in Virginia, thus: "With their houses burned, their cattle driven off, their fences destroyed, their black laborers all gone, all the white laborers migrated, the banks all broken, and all their money in Confederate bonds, what can the people do? I was a month in daily communication with one man, who had been educated as well as I had been. He had served as aide-de-camp throughout the war. His house and property were utterly wasted. He had a small shanty for himself, wife and boy, with one hunchback negro who refused to leave them. He worked as oyster dredger, cheerfully, and his wife taught lessons in French. She had kept her piano. I never heard one murmur from either. I saw hundreds of like cases." All of which may be very true, you know, but who is it that takes the French lessons and eats the oysters?

THE Messager Franco Americain, with some reserve of doubt, announces a piece of news lately received through private sources from Florence. Victor Emmanuel, according to this report, is about to address to the French Government a demand for the restoration of the provinces of Nice and Savoy to Italy. The Messager finds the hands of Bismarck in this matter. It looks like a projected alliance between Germany and Italy for the still further humiliation of France. In support of this idea it is further stated that the Italian Ministry declines to reduce the army budget. If the disposition and preparation for a rupture are present, a casus belli will not long be wanting.

STATE POLITICS.

COL. A. K. MCCLURE, in a letter accepting the Democratic-Reform nomination for the Senate, writes a pretty letter full of virtue and philosophy, and challenges his Republican rival to meet him in joint discussion every night (Sunday not excepted) until the election. If Col. Gray wants to argue with a political corpse he should accept the challenge.

THE Titusville Courier publishes a call on the President to remove Hon. H. B. Swoope from the Western Pennsylvania U. S. District Attorneyship. The petition is largely signed, but the engineers missed it since they did not send it to the Allegheny penitentiary for signatures. Many revenue swindlers in that institution would freely sign such a document, because Swoope sent them there.

THE Democratic County Committee of Bedford nominated J. M. Reynolds, Esq., as candidate for the Legislature to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. W. Dickson, Esq.

THE Democracy of Oil City have clubbed together and rented rooms. They have got used to being clubbed in a political way.

THE delegates to the State Convention this year generally refuse to be instructed.

A GRANT CLUB, to aid in the President's re-election, has been started in Boston. It includes among its members such men as A. H. Rice, Senator Wilson and others.

HOME AND HEALTH.

When disease of any kind invades the family circle it brings unhappiness and pain.

In the words home and health are embodied sentiments of the highest concern to all who wish the greatest degree of enjoyment which this world affords. We have seen many a pale and sickly girl fading away as the frost melts before the kiss of the sunbeam; the pallor indicative of waning health may be seen spreading its touch of decay over her once beaming face; now comes the cough, the wasting of flesh, the tremulous walks, the sunken eye, the expectoration of blood or matter which point out that the lungs are failing in their office. Now is the time to take a remedy, such an one as Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure, which will not only improve the blood and add to its plastic power but will aid the lymphatic and eliminating organs to remove from the system the lurking poisons which taint and vitiate the blood. It is all right to wrap up in flannels and protect the feet with shoes impervious to the wet and slush of winter; but when the cough comes, the fevered glow of the face, the quickened movement of the heart, you may well know that something more is needed to preserve the animal organism from wreck and ultimate ruin. It is useless to cry out when all the avenues of life have been forced, and when function after function has surrendered to the enemy. Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure is the remedy that will cure Consumption as well as remove that cachectic state of the system upon which it depends. Send for pamphlet. Sold at $1.50 per bottle, or four for $5. Lung examinations every day except Sunday and Tuesday, at 167 Liberty street, from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., and from 3 until 6 P. M.

SUCH A FILTHY

And profuse nasal discharge! Where does it all come from? The little glands in the tissue lining the chambers of the nose are ulcerated and diseased, drawing from the system its corruption. It is an outlet for its impurities. Stop this discharge by using the many advertised strong liquids, snuffs and inhalants, and you make an outlet in the lungs or elsewhere. The disease is translated to another locality more fatal. The rational way to cure is to correct the system by using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche, the only way to reach the upper and back cavities where the discharge comes from. No danger from this treatment and it is the only sure cure. Sold only at

AN APPEAL TO REASON.

Health would be much more carefully guarded than it is at present, and the average of human life lengthened by many years if common sense and the light of experience were accepted by the universal public as their medical monitor and guide. The true philosophy of health is simple. It consists in refraining from indulgences and imprudencies which impair the vital forces, and in supplying any deficiency of vital power and constitutional vigor that may exist, by invigorating and alterative treatment. To reinforce and regulate a feeble system, and to prevent a more vigorous physique from yielding to unhealthy and debilitating influences, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unquestionably the most potent of all vegetable purifiers. As a stimulant, it is the purest ever administered in medical practice; as a tonic and stomachic, the most infallible; as an anti-bilious agent, the safest and surest, and as an aperient and regulating medicine, mild and painless, yet irresistible. It is a protection against disease of every kind, and all seasons, and it is particularly efficacious as a means of forearming the system against the ailments generated by a raw, damp, ungenial atmosphere. Hence its great value as a winter tonic and invigorant. No one predisposed to indigestion, biliousness, constipation, rheumatism or nervous headache, should ever be without this Vital Elixir. As a certain class of country dealers are very anxious to dose their customers with "local bitters," of a worthless or pernicious character, which they represent to be equal or superior to the great national tonic, the public is hereby forewarned against their "tricks of trade."

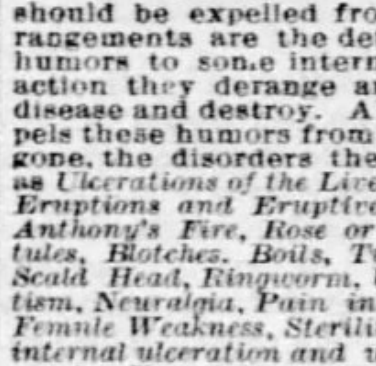
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

"Trade in all departments has been very dull during the past week; as buyers and sellers, during a greater part of the period under review, were somewhat apart in their views. Business in Western and State brands of flour, in a wholesale way, was almost at a stand still; but the jobbing demand was fair and confined to City Mills brands. The export demand has been extremely light, but with a small supply of shipping grades on the market, sellers generally were unwilling to grant concessions. Two or three lines of extra State have been taken for Europe at $6,70@6,75, with a pretty fair business in city brands for the West Indies and the British Provinces. In prices there has been no particular change, though the general tone of the market was of a weakening tendency. Trade in wheat early in the week was remarkably dull, not enough was done to give character to the market, and prices had a softening tendency, but within a day or two there was more animation to the market, and slightly improved prices were obtained. The business, however, was far from being active; shippers could not operate for want of freight room, and the bulk of the transactions were confined to lots for milling purposes. There have been no signs of speculation. There was a fair demand for corn, but at lower prices; operators cared but little about stocking themselves, and shippers operated only when a vessel could be procured for carrying purposes. Trade in oats, barley, barley malt, rye and peas was dull, the business being confined to supply the actual necessities of the trade.

NEW YORK, January 20, 1872.

Gold opened at 109⅛, sold at from 109@109⅛, and closed at 109⅛. Loans 3 to 6 for carrying. Clearances $34,000,000. The bank statement shows the following changes:

Loans, increase	$3,779,700
Specie, decrease	287,600
Circulation, decrease	68,100
Deposits, increase	5,537,500
Legal tenders, increase	1,720,500

The statement is favorable, and shows a net gain of $65,550 in reserve. The banks now hold $10,361,625 above the 25 per cent. required. The figures reflect an influx of money at this point. The money market was very easy to-day; the supply of capital being in excess of the wants of borrowers. This morning business on call was 6@7 per cent., but in the afternoon rates declined to 4@5 per cent. The shipments of specie for the week were $372,465. Governments very strong; late in the day showing an advance from ⅛ to ⅜ per cent. on the 5-20 issues, but closed steady. State bonds dull; Tennessee strong; new South Carolina very strong. The stock market was firm and higher at the close; Union Pacific was the great feature of the market, and advanced to 37½ on liberal dealings. Lake Shore was next in point of interest. The balance of the list did not present any feature of special importance.

Sterling exchange, 109½.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, January 20, 1872.

ASHES—Reported firm but unchanged. Common Soda, 4 cts; refined, 4½@4¾; Nitrate Soda, 5; Pots, 10; Pearls, 11.

APPLE BUTTER—Common to fair 50@55 cts per gallon, prime to choice, 60@65.

APPLES—The demand is less active and dealers generally report the market a little dull, but there is no change to make in quotations, and no decline in the value of good stocks is anticipated. We continue to quote at $3@3,50 per bbl for fair to good and $4@4,50 for prime to choice.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—Is dull and drooping; is offering at 4 cts per lb and $8 per bbl.

BUTTER—There is no improvement in the demand and with continued liberal receipts and stocks accumulating, prices are weak and drooping; good to prime roll cannot fairly be quoted above 20@22, and fair to medium at 12@15. The New York market is also reported very dull.

BROOM CORN—Continues very dull and prices are nominally unchanged; 7@10 cts as to quality.

BEANS—Continue quiet and unchanged; small sales at $2,00@2,50 per bushel, according to quality.

CORN MEAL—Is quoted in a jobbing way at $1,65 per cwt or 80 cts per bushel.

CIDER—Is very quiet and the season is about over; prices, however, are unchanged, $5@10 per bbl, according to quality and size of barrel.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of eastern at $13@16 per bbl, as to quality; Sackett's still quoted at $17.00.

CHEESE—The demand is reported rather better, but there is no change to make in quotations; 15@15½ for Goshen, 14@14½ for Factory, and 13@13½ for Dairy.

CONCENTRATD LYE—The Penna. Salt Manufacturing Co. quotes at $6 per case.

CARBON OIL—Continues quiet but there is no change in prices; standard brands, 21 cts in car load lots—usual advance over this quotation for small lots.

DRESSED HOGS—Sales at 5⅝@6 cts per lb.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches, 10@10½ for halves 8@8½ for mixed; 7@7½, for quarters; 15@20 for peeled. Blackberries, 14@15; Pitted Cherries, 26@28; unpitted, dull at 6@8. Apples, 6½@7½ for common to fair and 8@8½ for prime to choice.

EGGS—The market is quiet and devoid of any new features worthy of notice. Sales of fresh at 35@36 and pickeled at 25@30.

FLOUR—Our dispatches of Friday report flour dull both in New York and Chicago—this does not look much like an advance, to which reference was made in our last report. Furthermore, it seems that the west is more anxious to sell, which is not a little ominous at the preset juncture. In our market there has been no change whatever in prices for the past 30 days; $7@7,50 for fair to good spring extras; $7,75 for choice Minneso'a baker s flour and $7,25@7,50 for good to choice red winter wheat. Country brands, in first hands, $6,50@6,75. Rye Four, $5,50.

FEATHERS—No. 1 live geese quoted at 70@73 to the trade and 78@82 in small lots. Mixed stocks 40@60 cts, as to quality and dull.

GRAIN—There is but little doing in Wheat, which is owing to a scarcity of stock; however, there is no improvement in prices, $1,45@1,48 for fair to good red, $1,50 for amber and $1,52@1,55 for white. The inquiry is mainly for red, and it sells more readily than white, and, that, too, at relatively better prices—there is not as much difference made this year by five cents per bushel as formerly. Oats continue firm, with considerable inquiry, and prices are still tending upward; sales, on track, at 47@48. Ear Corn is quiet, and, while the supply is fully up to the demand, the receipts and offerings are not so large; we continue to quote at 60@62. Shelled, in good supply and dull; nominal at 60@62. The market is almost bare of Rye, and, with considerable inquiry, it would doubtless sell readily at 90@92—perhaps 95. Barley continues very dull, and, in the absence of sales, may be quoted nominally at 75@80 for spring, and 80@85 for fall.

GROCERIES—The grocery market presents but little that is really new or important. Coffee continues firm, though there has been no quotable advance for several days, and the impression begins to prevail again that, for the present, at least, there is not likely to be any further change. Sugars are weak and drooping; refined goods are off, within the past few days, fully ⅛ of a cent, while raws are lower at New Orleans than they have been yet this season. On the other hand, New Orleans Molasses are firm and higher. Syrups quiet. Rice firmer.

SUGARS—Refined—Standard Hards, 13; A, 12⅝; B, 12⅜; Ex. C, 12⅛; C. Yellow, 12⅛. Porto Rico Sugars—Choice, 11; Prime, 10½; Good, 10. Demarara, 11½@12. New Orleans—fair, 10; good, 10½; prime, 11; choice, 11½.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 26; Prime, 25; Good, 24 Fair, 23@23½. Java, 28@30. Laguayra, 25@26. Mocha, 45. Roasted Coffee, pure, 27. Lower grades, 24@25.

SYRUPS—Havemyer & Elder's, 65. White Honey, 65. Lovering's, 60. Durant's, 65. Sugar Drips, 75; Brune's, 65; other grades, 48@60. New Orleans Molasses, old, 50. New crop, 60.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9½; Good, 9; Fair, 8½. Rangoon, 8. Patna, 8½.

SPICES—Pepper, 23. Allspice, 18. Cassia, 50. Cloves, 25. Nutmegs, $1,40.

HONEY—Sales at 25@30 cts.

HOMINY—Sales at $4,50 per bbl to the trade and and $5 in a jobbing way.

HAY—Continues dull, with a supply largely in excess of the demand, and, while the receipts by river have fallen off very considerably, there is considerable coming in by rail. We continue to quote at $20@25 per ton, as to quality.

LARD OIL—No. 1 Extra is quoted at 85 cts to the trade, and 88@90 in a jobbing way.

LIME—Perrysburg white, $2,00@2,25 per bbl; Cleveland $2,25; Eastern, $1,75.

MILL FEED—Sales, in a jobbing way, from store, at $22@23 per ton for Bran; $25@26 for Seconds; $35@36 for Middlings, and $40 for Oil Meal.

ONIONS—Dull but unchanged; small sales at $2,00@2,50 per bbl, as to quality.

POULTRY — Continues slow. Dressed Chickens, 12@13; Turkeys, 14@16, Geese, almost unsaleable.

POTATOES—The market continues very slow, with but little prospect of any immediate improvement; we continue to quote, in a jobbing way, from store, at 70@80 cts per bushel.

PROVISIONS—Plain Bacon Shoulders, 7½; sugar cured shoulders, 8½; ribbed sides, 8; short ribbed, 8½; clear, 9; sugar cured hams, 13. Dried Beef, 16½. Mess Pork, $14,50@15,00. Ham Sausage, 11. Lard: in tierces, 9½; in kegs and buckets, 10½@11.

RAGS—Sales, 4@4½ cts per lb.

SALT—Is quoted at $1,85 per bbl, by the car load, and $2 in a jobbing way.

SHAKER CORN—13@14 cts per lb.

SEEDS—Clover Seed continues very quiet, but an early improvement in the demand is anticipated; we continue to quote nominally at $6@6,50. Timothy Seed, $3@3,50. Flaxseed unchanged at $1,80.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL YARDS, EAST LIBERTY, SATURDAY January 20, 1872.

RECEIPTS STOCK.

The receipts of stock at the Central Yards for the week ending to-day, were as follows:

	This week.	Last week
Cattle	315 cars.	300 cars.
Hogs	180 "	248 "
Sheep	163 "	97 "
Horses	24 "	14 "
Mules	4 "	7 "
Total	686 "	666 "

CATTLE.

The market since the date of our last report (17th) has been a sluggish, in consequence of unfavorable reports from the east, and since Wednesday, the volume of business was comparatively light—the bulk of the arrivals on Thursday and Friday went through east in first hands. The despatches both from New York and Buffalo, on Friday were very unfavorable; receipts at both points heavy and prices ¼ to ½ lower, and, with a big run, the prospects for next week (in the east) are not very flattering, and this, of course, is not without its effect here. In the early part of the week trade was very good at this point, and, notwithstanding, there was a fair supply prices ruled fully ¼ higher, as compared with the week preceding; subsequently, however, as already noted, trade has been sluggish, and the advance established in the early part of the week has been almost if not entirely lost. The average quality of the offerings, during the past two weeks, has been considerably below the usual standard consisting mostly of the common and medium grades and this being the case, prime cattle in consequence of a very limited supply of this kind, have sold more readily and that too at better prices than the lower grades.

Prime 1,300 to 1,400 lb steers, fat and smooth, sold at 6½@6¾; good 1,100 to 1,200 lb averages at 6@6½; fair 1,000 to 1,100, 5@5½. Following is a detailed report of most of the sales since the 17th:

HOGS

The arrivals, as will be seen, were not large, but, with only a moderate demand, trade has been a little slow all week, and to-day, notwithstanding prices are considerably lower, as compared with last week, there are a large number in the pens unsold, and the feeling is hardly as strong as it was on Thursday and Friday. However, operators generally seem to be impressed with the belief that prices are not likely to go any lower, and that, in the event of a light run, prices may improve next week; during the past three days there has been no change, one way or the other, but, as already noted, the market closes flat. We continue to quote prime Philadelphia hogs at 4,70@4,75, while Yorkers range all the way from 4,20 to 4,50, according to quality. Following is a pretty full report of the sales during the past three days:

SHEEP.

The receipts, as will be seen, were large, 163 cars, but of these it is estimated that 40 cars were through stock, so that the number really on sale was not much, if any, larger than last week. Trade has been a little sluggish during the past three days, in consequence of an impression which prevails that New York will be hard next week; but there are but very few, if any, unsold, and prices have been fully sustained. If the arrivals should be large next week, a slight decline is probable, as the market is hardly as strong as it has been recently; but if not, the indications are that present prices will be maintained, though no further advance is probable. Prime to extra 100 to 110 lb fine wool sheep may be fairly quoted at 7@7¼—some sales of fancy at 7½, and one bunch brought 8 cts; good 90 to 95 lb averages, 6½@6¾; 80 to 85 lbs, 5½@6. Scalawags, 3½@4½ cts.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

Trade in petroleum has been exceedingly dull all week, so far at least as Pittsburgh is concerned, and the indications at present are that it will continue so for some weeks to come. Crude has undergone little or no change for some time, and it is rather remarkable, in view of the stagnation that has existed for several weeks, that prices are sustained. It is still quoted at $3,87@3.90 per bbl at Parker; or, adding 50 cts per bbl freight $4.38@4,40, delivered here. Refined is steady for immediate delivery, but very quiet. January quoted at 22½; February, nominal at 22½@22¾; March, 22¾@23.

Mr. Albert G. Bunker, an old and well-known New York petroleum broker, died suddenly, at his residence, in Brookly, on Wednesday last, of appoplexy.

Receipts of Crude this week, 20,410; last week, 18,820; January 1st to date, 27,156; same time last year, 49,864. Exports refined this week, 7,686; last week, 10,508; January 1st to date, 31,068; same time last year, 7,422.

Dry Goods.

NEW YORK, January 20.—The dry goods market is less animated. New materials, which are in good supply, are advancing; wool, especially, is in very light stock, and commands tall prices; 68@75c for western descriptions. Scoured wools of all kinds are quiet at $1,10 per lb. Spring woolen goods have not opened as yet. In cotton textiles the market partakes of a buoyant tone. Glazed cambrics have advanced ⅛c all around. Printing cloths are in demand at 7⅝@8c for standard extra cloth. As yet there is but little inquiry for prints, which will open at 11½c for all leading makes. Mous delaines are not fully opened. Some sales, however, are making to far distant trade, at a value which probably will be 22c or 22½c. Ginghams better, unsettled and irregular, on account of the reduction of Lancaster to 13c.

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose several inches on Saturday but has been stationary since, with about 3½ feet in the channel. Weather stormy and unsettled with occasional snow squalls. Thermometer at 3 p. m., 34; wind southwest.

There have been no arrivals or departures since the date of our last report. The Kate Putnam, drawing a little over four feet, is at Steubenville, waiting for water.

Capt. Greenlee, a veteran steamboatman, has sold his interest in the Messenger to his son Charles, who has assumed command.

The West Virginia departed for Geneva on Saturday. She will arrive to-night and return as usual to-morrow at 3 p. m.

The Wild Duck will depart for St. Louis as soon as there is water.

There are a large number of towboats laid up at different points along the river, waiting for water.

The Arlington will depart for Cincinnati to-morrow, providing there is sufficient water.

—We are informed by Mr. J. H. Clark, pilot of the Abeona, that the men to whom was awarded the contract for improving Colbert Shoals, in the Tennessee river, between Eastport, Miss., and Florence, Ala., abandoned their work in an unfinished state. The coffer dams remain as when first constructed, making a complete blockade, and rendering it impossible for steamers to pass, unless the river is at a very high stage. Mr. Clark thinks about $500 or $800 would remove the dams so that boats could pass. Besides these dams to prevent navigation the boats used by the contractors for improving the stream, consisting of one steam tug and three flats, have been sunk across the channel in different places, and no efforts have been made to remove them. Broad hints have been made that the whole work was intentional, and that the contractors were paid for causing the blockade.

—The Davenport Gazette, of Thursday, says: The stockholders of the Northwestern Union Packet Company held their annual meeting at Dubuque day before yesterday, when W. F. Davidson and P. S. Davidson, of St. Paul, Wm. Rhodes, A. McPike and B. H. Campbell and P. H. Smith, of Chicago, were elected Directors for the ensuing year. Subsequently the Directors assembled and selected the following officers for the season of 1872: President, W. F. Davidson; Secretary, Wm. Rhodes; Superintendent, P. S. Davidson. It will be observed that this election is in favor of the pooling arrangement with the Northern Line, which has been in vogue for the past two seasons.

—A Memphis special to the Cincinnati Commercial says: The steamer G. S. Weeks, a three hundred ton craft which came here from the Upper Mississippi several weeks ago, and was unable to find a trade, took on a cargo of 2,000 sacks of oil cake, 500 barrels oil, and 71 bales of cotton, and started for New Orleans last Saturday, with Captain Sencerbox in command. At Island 82, where the Kate Kearney was lost, she struck and sunk, and will likely prove a total loss. This is the fourth steamer of the same class which has been destroyed by sinking, with the same kind of a cargo, within the last two years, between Memphis and New Orleans. The Weeks is owned by Commodore W. F. Davidson, of the Upper Mississippi river.

—Speaking of the Robert Burns' up trip, the Evansville Journal, of Wednesday, says: She had on board Dick Jones, the chief engineer of the steamer Bodmann, who was terribly wounded when that boat blew out a cylinder head, a few days ago, below Cairo. A piece of metal gasket five inches long, one inch wide, and half an inch thick, was blown through his thigh, shattering the bone and creating a ghastly wound, from which he was suffering severely. Mr. Jones is a most worthy gentleman and a first rate engineer. He has a wife and nine or ten children living back of Covington, Ky. He will not recover for many weeks, and will probable be crippled for life.

—The Cincinnati Chronicle says: We understand that previous to the adoption of Clark's steam gauge by the Government the article sold for $25 each, but since the enactment of the present Steamboat Law the price has been advanced to $60. It was one of these gauges that indicated a pressure of thirteen pounds of steam on the Arlington, while some men were inside her boilers cleaning them out. Can't some one get up a theory of "friction," or perhaps "heat from the human body," or something else.

—A Shreveport dispatch says: The sternwheel steamer Salado was burned near the Raft, with 350 bales of cotton on board. Boat and cargo a total loss. Passengers and crew all saved. The Salado was built at Wheeling by Captain W. L. Taylor and others, and was in her third season. She had previously sunk in Ouachita river, and was raised and repaired and was owned by Captain Martin H. Kouns, of New Orleans, when she burned.

—A gentleman writing from Louisville in reply to a letter from Capt. Vint. Shinkle, says there is no earthly hope of the Bodman getting through the canal this trip. He also says Howard had no timber suitable to be used on the locks, and was compelled to go to the woods for it, thus necessitating further delay. A late telegram says that work on the new locks' gates is progressing, but the locks will not be available before April.

—Two barges of coal from Knoxville for Chattanooga have sunk in the Tennessee, below Half Moon Island. Value of barges and cargoes $1,000. We have been informed that the sunken barges have been raised and part of the coal saved by grappling. The barges contained about 4,000 bushels of coal, part of which was consigned to parties in Atlanta, the rest to the Chattanooga Gas Light Company.

—The Steam Capstan Company of Pittsburgh, consisting of John Schaffer, Capt. McMillen, &c., are doing a quiet but sucessful business. They charge all steamers which have used the steam capstan the following sums: Steamers exceeding 100 tons hull measurement, $150; 150 to 700 tons, $200; over 700 tons, $300. This is not for the article itself, but the privilege of using it.—Cin. Gazette.

—The New Orleans Southern Dry Dock, which has been undergoing repairs at Algiers sunk on Sunday night, and will prove a total loss. The docks are valued at $45,000, and the loss will fall heavily on the owners.

—Capt. George Wolf bought at New Orleans the bell of the defunct Wade Hampton, and put it on the P. W. Strader. It is one of the largest and finest on the river.

—The steamer Glasgow has recently been sold by the Louisville & Arkansas Packet Company for $6,500. Ebner Baird, Esq., of Louisville, was the purchaser.

—The Post Boy and Fannie Lewis are lying at New Albany awaiting the opening of the new canal, to go to Madison and be dismantled.

—The value of the Northern Line boats is estimated at $360,000; those of the Northwestern Union Line, $300,000.

FIRST MORTGAGE UPON A Finished Railroad.

A small amount of the FIRST MORTGAGE 7 PER CENT. GOLD BONDS of the CHICAGO, DANVILLE AND VINCENNES RAILROAD, for sale at 90 and accrued interest, in currency. The mortgage is only for $18,500 a mile, and the line is finished and doing a large business. Investors who desire a THOROUGHLY SAFE BOND ON A COMPLETED ROAD can obtain full particulars on application to

MESSRS. S. M'CLEAN & CO.,
61 Fourth Avenue.
Or to the General Agents,
W. B. SHATTUCK & CO., Bankers, ja16:d&W No. 23 Nassau street, New York.

ADVANCE IN PRICE
OF THE
Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota R. R.
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS
To 92½ and Interest.

A small amount only remains of this issue of Bonds; and in view of this fact the Company has raised the price from 90 to 92½ and interest, henceforth.

The mortgage deed authorizes the issue of $5,600,000 Bonds; a modification of the plan of construction, shortening the line of road, will confine the issue to $20,000 per mile, making the total about six millions. The remainder of the Bonds will be cancelled by the Trustees.

Construction is now stopped on the road. The entire equipment will be hereafter devoted to increasing the earnings.

The receipts for the last five months from local traffic, over a portion only of the line, and while much of the equipment was in use for construction purposes, were as follows:

August receipts	$67,244 82
September "	95,622 53
October "	73,602 58
November "	69,393 69
December "	62,650 97

The net earnings out of this amount were more than 10 per cent. on the amount of the mortgage indebtedness of the road applying against the portion in operation. The figures above given represent actual cash receipts, no charges being made for construction account

As soon as the Bonds remaining on hand shall be disposed of, the security will be placed upon the New York Stock Exchange, and the merits of the Bonds will entitle them to take rank with any Railway Mortgage upon the Exchange List, none of which sell below par.

Detailed Report will be furnished on application.

HOME NEWS.

Exhibition of Babcock Engine this afternoon.

Educational.—We call attention to the card of Prof. Thompson, in another column. His school (and it is one of the very best in the city) opens this day, and continues for twenty weeks. Circulars can be had on application at No. 29 Ninth street.

Gregory's Seed Catalogue.—The Annual Illustrated Seed Catalogue from that reliable seed grower, J. J. H. Gregory, Marblehead, Mass., is advertised in our columns. Those in want of choice Vegetable and Flower Seeds should send for a copy. Sent free to all.

Y. M. C. A. Free Lecture.—A lecture will be delivered by Prof. Geo. Hay, of Western University, at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, Cor. Penn avenue and Sixth street, on Tuesday evening, January 23, at 8 o'clock. Subject, "The Chemistry of the Ocean." The lecture will be illustrated by brilliant experiments. All are invited.

Babcock Self-Acting Fire Engine.

The exhibition of the engine which was postponed from Friday on account of the rain, will take place to-day (Monday) at 3 P. M., on the grounds of the Sligo Iron works of Messrs. Lyon, Shorb & Co.

The Burns' Festival.

Preparations are nearly completed for the banquet at Lafayette Hall, on Wood street, next Thursday evening. Tickets may be procured to-day (and to-morrow, if any remain,) from William Miller, Duquesne Forge; Arbuckles & Co., Liberty street; Arthur Kirk, 19 Seventh street; A. Leggate, 41 Fifth avenue, corner of Wood street; John Brown, Jr., Second National Bank, Allegheny, and James Lockhart, Diamond, Allegheny.

Revenue Cases Settled.

Saturday United States District Attorney Swoope received notice from Commissioner Douglass, of Washington, of the settlement of the following revenue cases on the conditions named: Henry Herdt, of Allegheny, selling beer without stamping the kegs, on payment of $250 and costs; Patrick Smith, of Luzerne county, carrying on the business of a wholesale liquor dealer without paying the special tax, $200; Michael Hays, of Canonsburg, retail liquor dealing without taking out license, $100; Patrick Griffin, of Canonsburg, retail liquor dealing without taking out license; John Hazel, of Erie, wholesale liquor dealing without paying special tax, $1,500. Hays and Griffin were incarcerated in jail for a considerable time, and the Commissioner settled their cases on the conditions named on the recommendation of Mr. Swoope, who thought this sufficient punishment, considering their imprisonment.

City High School.

EDITORS GAZETTE—In your issue of Saturday "Tax Payer" desires to know why a certain room in the High School building is not supplied with a suitable wardrobe for the use of the pupils? As the institution belongs to the city, and is managed in the interest of the public, any such question is perfectly legitimate and calls for an answer. When the building was in course of erection, a certain small apartment contiguous to No. 11 was designed for the use of the pupils of room No. 11 but the necessities of the school required that apartment for other purposes. There are several other rooms similarly circumstanced, but orders have been given to Joseph Meyers & Son to make suitable wardrobes for those several rooms, which are now nearly ready for use. If "Tax Payer" will control his patience for a few days the want will be supplied. MEMBER OF CENTRAL BOARD.

Struck With a Brick.

Yesterday evening between five and six o'clock an intoxicated man was staggering along Spring Garden avenue, in the Ninth ward, Allegheny, when he attracted the attention of a crowd of small boys, who followed him. Becoming angry at their provocations, the man picked up a piece of brick and hurled it recklessly into the crowd. The missile struck one of the boys, whose name we could not learn, felling him to the earth senseless, from a severe wound on the head. The little fellow was carried into the house of his parents, near by, and received medical attendance, after which the man was arrested and taken to the Mayor's office. He then gave his name as John Schmidt, and said he resided in the Ninth ward, Allegheny. The Mayor not being in, no information could be made against him, and he was locked up to await further disposition to-day. The boy is said to be very seriously injured.

New Trinity Church on Sixth Avenue.

This noble edifice is on the point of completion, and Thursday next, 25th inst., (the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul,) is the day fixed when it is to be solemnly set apart for its sacred uses according to the ritual of the P. E. Church in the United States.

It is also appointed to hold, on the evening of the consecration day, in the church a missionary meeting, at which some of the members of the missionary board from New York will be present, and which will be addressed by Bishops and Clergy. On Friday, the day following the consecration, we will publish in the GAZETTE a detailed and technically accurate description of the new church which has been prepared with great care. There will also appear in the same issue a report of the ceremonies of consecration. Many copies of the forthcoming description have already been ordered, others who may desire extra copies for preservation, or to send to friends, should leave their orders in advance of the issue in order that enough may be printed.

An Alderman's Authority Questioned.

A question has been sprung upon by Alderman R. K. Kerr, of the Ninth ward, Allegheny, a question as to the authority by which he holds his seat as Aldermen of that ward. The Alderman was elected at the December election, 1870, and on the seventh of January, 1871, received his commission from Governor Geary. Since then he has been officiating in peace until Saturday morning, when the Court of Common Pleas was called upon to decide as to his eligibility. He is now and has been all the time a resident of McClure township which the petitioners claim is a violation of the law. Messrs. Robb & Saively, at the suggestion of State Attorney General Brewster, asked for a writ of quo warranto upon the Alderman to compel him to show his authority, for holding the office. The Court granted the papers and made the case returnable next Saturday morning, at the same time intimating that the Alderman might get over the difficulty by moving into the ward.

The petition presented by Messrs. Robb & Saively was signed by Messrs. Louis Hilke, Roland D. Jones, D. Whittier, and other prominent politicians in the district.

The Board of Health.

The Board of Health held its regular weekly meeting on Saturday afternoon, Dr. McCandless in the chair. The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Swartzweider, Solicitor of the Board, said that in accordance with instructions received, he had examined the health laws of Chicago, and finding that their application to this city would be beneficial, he recommended the re-codification of the health laws of this city so as to make them more effective. For this purpose a bill will be introduced into the Legislature this week, and it will be similar to the health laws of Chicago.

Bills to the amount of $63 12 were presented and warrants ordered to be drawn for their payment.

Health Officer Gray reported that he had closed the following houses on account of small pox: Store of Adolph Roders, on Second avenue, in the Twenty-third ward; saloon and barber shop, at No. 177 Grant street, and a huckster shop at No. 66 Virgin alley.

Thirty new cases of small pox during the week were reported. Six persons were sent to the hospital, and but two deaths. The board then adjourned.

Exhibition of Babcock Engine this afternoon.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Closing Session on Saturday—Compulsory Education Discussed.

The Institute reassembled at nine o'clock on Saturday morning, a much larger attendance being present than was the case on the preceding evening. Prof. George W. Monro, one of the Vice-Presidents of the Institute, presided. The Allegheny Quartette Club were present and added interest and life to the exercises by some of their excellent performances.

An instructive lecture upon "The Teacher's Responsibilities," was delivered by Mr. D. R. Brubaker.

The event of the session, however, was the discussion upon State Superintendent Wickersham's Report on Compulsory Education. This discussion was opened by City Superintendent George J. Luckey, who strongly favored compulsory education. After this, numerous arguments, pro and con, were brought forward and urged by Messrs. Harrison, Ford, Burtt, Wood and Crumb.

At twelve o'clock, the qurrterly meeting of the Institute was brought to a close.

DISTRESSING CASE.

A Mother Dies From Excessive Drinking—A Chapter of Troubles.

Yesterday morning Coroner West was called upon to act in his official capacity, in one of the most distressing cases that has yet fallen under his notice. Mrs. Margaret Shephard, a widow woman, residing in Williamsburg, Lower St. Clair township, was found dead in her bed in the morning, about half-past six o'clock. A post mortem examination was held by direction of the Coroner who was called in, when the physician, Doctor G. G. Rauhauser pronounced it a case of death from congestion of the brain caused by excessive use of alcoholic stimulants. About three months ago her house was broken into by three burglars, who beat and abused her in a manner from which she seems never to have recovered. She was beaten about the head particularly, and afterwards complained frequently of pain in that locality. The burglars were tried about three weeks ago and sent to the Penitentiary for three years. After the trial the woman began to drink, it is said, until at last death came. She leaves three small children—the youngest of whom is lying very ill with typhoid fever.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY.

A Chicago Sufferer (?) in Trouble.

On Saturday evening a genteelly dressed individual, whose name appears, from papers found in his possession, to be L. Pichler, was arrested in the Central Garden Saloon, by Detective Joseph Cupples, and brought before the Mayor. The officer had been looking for the man for several days, it appearing that he had been, for some time past, endeavoring to live by his wits. He had, it seems, several times attempted to raise money on a check for $25, purporting to be drawn by a citizen of Allegheny named Charles Bentz on the Second National Bank, Allegheny. The last place he attempted to dispose of this piece of paper was at Bender's tavern, on Smithfield street. Here he had incurred a board bill of six dollars, and he presented the check, requesting Mr. Bender to take out the amount of his bill and give him the change. The latter gentleman suspecting that all was not right, visited Mr. Bentz, in Allegheny, who stated that he had never drawn such a check as the one referred to. This was on Thursday, and Detective Cupples was at once informed of the affair, and started to work it up, with the result stated. When arrested the man acknowledged to having had in his possession such a check, but that he had come by it honestly. However, knowing that the officer was after him, he had torn it up.

The Mayor recognized the fellow at once, as being an offender, who had been more than once before him. About a week ago he had been brought from the Young Men's Home for being drunk and acting in a disorderly manner. Previous to that time he had applied to the Mayor for assistance, representing himself as a Chicago sufferer.

The accused was committed to the lock-up for a hearing, which will probable take place this morning.

BREVITIES.

MAYOR BRUSH moves his quarters to the new City Hall to-day.

OUR streets during last week were in a miserable condition.

IT will cost the city about four thousand dollars for janitors for the new City Hall.

THE change in the weather will have a favorable effect on our streets and pavements.

WHO will have the honor of appearing first before the Mayor to answer a criminal charge in the new City Hall?

DRUNKEN MEN could be seen on the street yesterday. Could our Mayor's detectives find out where these men get whisky on the Sabbath day?

THE members of the Finance Committee of Councils are busy preparing the appropriations to run the city government for the coming year.

THE delegates from this place to the Knights of Pythias Convention which is to be held in Philadelphia to-morrow, will leave for that place to-day.

MAYOR BRUSH will take possession of the new office in City Hall to-day. The apartments are most elegant and our city should be proud of them.

GARNIER, the French billiard player, offers to play John Nelson of this city, for $250 a side, a French game of billiards, and allow Nelson 200 points in a game of 500.

MANY members of the G. A. R. from this community are preparing to visit the annual Convention of that organization, which is to be held next Thursday in Philadelphia.

MINNIE MOORE was arrested last night again, this time on a charge of stealing a skirt from a "lady boarder" at a house on Liberty street where she was stopping.

PROPOSALS for the furnishing of the Council chambers of the new City Hall will remain open until next Monday, as a change in the advertisement elsewhere announces.

AN insane man, who gave his name as Alexander Wood and said he was from Ohio, occupied a cell in the Allegheny Lock-up yesterday. The Directors of the Poor will take charge of him to-day.

THAT genial and always courteous official, Alderman Samuel McMasters, entered upon a new lease of official life on Saturday morning by filing his official bond as Alderman of the Fifth Ward, in Court.

SATURDAY MORNING an order was issued in the Court of Common Pleas legalizing the adoption of Harry Murray, a small child by G. W. Holmes, and changing the name of the child to Harry Murray Holmes.

THE BOY ACTOR at the New Opera House this week is pronounced a great phenomenon by eastern journals. He is a mere lad in age and person, but has a full voice and extraordinary grace, ease and finish in acting.

THE mischievous type on Saturday made us say that Louis Hager lost his watch at Powers' Exchange. It was Louis Sager who was unfortunate, and not the gallant Captain of the Duquesne Grays, as our item led many to believe.

THE Hay-Humbert case seems to hang fire a very long time. On Saturday, His Honor, Judge Stowe had the papers before him and the legal fraternity and others in the court were expecting a decision but were cruelly disappointed.

TO-MORROW EVENING there will be a meeting of the surviving members of the 123d Regiment, in the 2nd U. P. Church Allegheny, to take some appropriate action in expression of their feelings at the death their Colonel, the late Rev. Dr. J. B. Clark.

SEATS were at a premium at the Maggie Mitchell matinee at the Pittsburgh Opera House on Saturday afternoon, and the courteous Manager Ellsler was much exercised to find nooks and corners wherein to stow the lady patrons, as he is much too gallant to permit them to stand.

W. B. ROSS ESQ., still continues his war on the saloon keepers in Allegheny. Saturday evening a hearing was had before Alderman Stewart in the case of Adam Gilg, who is charged on two informations with selling liquor on Sunday. The Magistrate reserved his decision until to-day.

THE Water Commission held another meeting on Saturday, to consider some plans from the engineers. No attempt was made to elect that Secretary; the Commissioners express a determination to save the expenses of a scribe until they get a fixed official headquarters and have something for him to do.

ON SATURDAY, Mr. J. W. Carothers, was arrested on a capias issued from the District Court, on the complaint of J. H. McClay, who desires him to settle some business in connection with the failure of J. W. Grubbs, of Green County—full particulars of which were published. Mr. Carothers gave bail in the sum of $3 000.

SCORE one for the Titusville Courier. It says: The Philadelphia Press calls Pittsburgh "a suburb" of Philadelphia. As Pittsburgh is blessed with better papers than Philadelphia, wouldn't it be a good idea for the Press to move out to the "suburbs," and see if the move wouldn't improve its condition and character?

BEN. PATTERSON received a very fine coupee from the East last week. Ladies and gentlemen wishing to attend the Opera Theatre or parties cannot do better than hire this cab. The prices are moderate. It is just the thing for ladies making calls or shopping. Mr. P. can be found at the Monongahela or Central Hotel during the day and evening.

THE many friends of Mr. Bradley Avery, formerly Chief Clerk at the Central Hotel who resigned that position some three months ago on account of ill health, will be glad to learn that he returned to the city on Saturday entirely recovered and ready for duty. "Brad" is just the man that is required in a first-class hotel—obliging, courteous and attentive, and liked by all. He is one of the few who knows how to "run a hotel."

IN the Court of Common Pleas Saturday morning the case of Boyer vs. Boyer was again revived by the application of John Mellon, Esq., counsel for Mrs. Boyer, who moved that the case be referred back to S. A. McClung, Esq., to take testimony relative to desertion. The case was dismissed some two years, but since that time it is alleged that the husband has deserted his wife, and desertion now alleged as a ground for divorce. A rule was granted.

A FINAL hearing was had in the case of Melinda Shrok vs. Albert Shrok for desertion. It will be remembered that Albert alleged he was forced into the marriage through fear, and that he had never lived with Melinda. He therefore through his counsel asked to be released. The Court, however, refused to grant the release, and Albert was directed to pay Melinda four dollars per week, dating from the time of desertion. He was bound in $500 security to perform this contract.

A NUMBER of our leading and intelligent Hebrew young gentlemen have just organized a literary society for their mutual benefit and improvement which promises to take front place among the similar associations of the city. At an election for officers, held last week, the following gentlemen were chosen to serve the ensuing year: President, A. H. Fisher; Vice President, A. Spelman; Treasurer, W. L. Kann; Secretary, Simon Crown; Master of Ceremonies, Bernard E. Arons; Stage Manager, Alfred Hyams. The association will be known as the Garrick Literary Dramatic and Social Club.

WE notice by our exchanges that Mrs. Livingston, a lady of rare dramatic power, is lecturing in the West, creating quite a sensation wherever she goes. She lectured in St. Louis a few weeks ago, for the benefit of the Chicago sufferers, taking as her subject, "Josephine." The press speak well of her. Could not our Young Men's Library Lecture Committee secure her for a lecture during the present season? Judging from the notices we see of her, she does not appear to be one of the ultra, strong-minded, masculine sort, but exhibits in her deportment upon the rostrum that most charming and admirable of all womanly qualities—modesty.

IN the District Court on Saturday, M. A. Woodward, Esq., on behalf of Wm. H. King, of Allegheny, asking for a writ of habeas corpus directing John Langfeldt, of Lower St. Clair township, to produce in court Barbara Miller, a child seven years old, who, as is alleged, is unlawfully deprived of her liberty by respondent. The child, it appears, is the niece of the petitioner, and daughter of William and Mary Miller, deceased. The petitioner alleges that he is administrator of the deceased parents of the child, and desires to get possession of her in order to give her such educational training as he is able, alleging that she is now being brought up in ignorance, and compelled to do heavy work unsuited to her age. The writ has been issued, made returnable to-morrow morning at ten o'clock.

A STARTLING example of retributive justice attending the breaking of the fifth commandment, occurred in our city during the recent severe weather. A young man residing in an upper ward (we will mention no names), one morning a couple of weeks since, becoming enraged at his mother, from some slight cause, attacked and kicked her in a brutal manner. After this he left the house, went to a saloon and became intoxicated. Some time during the night he made his way toward his home, but only gained a stable on an adjoining lot. Into this he attempted to gain access, but stumbled and fell, his body within the stable, and his feet extending out and exposed to the weather. Thus he lay during the night, and when, in the morning, he was picked up, it was found that his feet were so badly frozen that a few days afterward it became necessary to have them amputated. He now lies in a very critical condition.

Public Entertainments.

NEW OPERA HOUSE.—The matinee and evening performances at this house were crowded to excess and many were turned away, even for the want of standing room. Miss Maggie Mitchell's engagement has been better attended and proved a very profitable one to our able and deserving manager of the new Opera House, Mr. Ellsler, and has given general satisfaction to the people, at least to those who were able to get secured seats to see the bewitching and fascinating Maggie Mitchell. We can safely promise Miss Mitchell a hearty welcome and crowded houses whenever she can make it convenient to come again, which we hope will be at an early day. To-night Edwin Forrest in "Richelieu."

FIFTH AVENUE OPERA HOUSE.—The engagement of Mr. Thompson closed to a good house on Saturday evening. This evening Master Percy Rosseile, the boy actor, who has gained considerable reputation abroad, commences an engagement for six nights only, in his character impersonation of "Butts, the Boy Detective," in which he assumes five distinct characters.

LIBRARY HALL.—Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver her celebrated lecture at Library Hall, this evening, entitled "What shall we do with our Daughters." We shall anticipate a crowded house for the popular lecturess.

SCHOOL OF DESIGN will be opened to the public to-day and during the week, at the corner of Wood street and Sixth avenue. Admission free.

WACHTEL—By reference to our amusement column it will be seen that Wachtel and his German Opera Company will open a season of four nights at Library Hall, commencing on Tuesday evening, January 30th. The very favorable notices we see of him and his company through our exchanges leads us to anticipate one of the rare and richest of musical treats that has ever fallen to the lot of our citizens.

RIGHTS OF PROPERTY OWNERS.

Opinion by the Supreme Court—The Washington Avenue Case—The Lower Court Affirmed—An Unconstitutional Enactment.

A few days ago there was delivered in the Supreme Court, sitting at Philadelphia, a very important opinion respecting the rights of persons owning farm lands, in relation to assessments made for the improvement of the thoroughfares upon which the lands abut. It was in the case of the Commissioners of Washington avenue vs. Ann Curran et al. Washington avenue, which leads out of this city toward Cannonsburg, was to be improved, and the work was placed in the hands of a commission consisting of seven persons who proceeded under an act of the Legislature to assess and collect the cost of the improvement from the owners of property located within a mile of the avenue on either side throughout its entire length. The route lay for a great part through a section not densely populated, and the land was principally owned in large tracts; hence in some cases the tax fell heavily upon certain property owners, much beyond the benefit derived by them, and they refused to pay it. The case was then taken to Court, and a decision rendered against the Commissioners—a decision rendered by the Court of Common Pleas, Judges Stowe and Collier on the bench. An appeal was taken, and when the case came up in the Supreme Court for final adjudication, Judge Agnew delivered the opinion, in which the full bench concurred. In this opinion, which is a very lengthy and exhaustive, statement of the law of taxation, local, general and special, the court decides against the Commissioners on the ground that the act under which they acted is unconstitutional.

In support of this opinion His Honor, in reviewing the case, says that the road has no respect to township authorities, township lines, or the mode of levying township taxes. It is not a case of taxation by frontage, for the lands of the taxed party do not always abut on the avenue, but merely lie within its prescribed line of taxation—one mile. It was not a case of local improvement and taxation, therefore upon those ordinarily or even peculiarly benefitted, for the master found that some of the taxed people did not use the avenue, but traveled on parallel roads; that persons two miles outside of the lines of taxation were nearly or quite as much benefitted as those within the lines, and that owners of property and the public far beyond the southern terminus of the avenue, were greatly benefitted. In short it was found that the proposed improvement would be a general public benefit. The avenue, though but seven miles long, passed through six townships and part of a seventh. If this mode of taxation could be maintained, then the Legislature on the same principle, could make a turnpike, or canal, or railroad or any other highway, across the State, and compel the owners of the lands within one or any fixed number of miles along the line to pay for it, and could assess the cost per acre at any sum necessary to pay for the same.

His Honor, after stating this general principle as opposed to the Act, goes on to review the processes by which taxation was established. First came local taxation, which had its origin in necessity and convenience, and under it comes the taxes which are levied for schools, bridges, and like local improvements which could be best paid for through the municipal divisions of the State, and by local taxation. In this way in large cities and towns the property owners along the streets found it convenient to have the thoroughfare improved by footwalks, and by graded and paved carriage ways, and as they were the parties directly benefitted, and as the property was generally owned in small lots, and the district along the line densely populated, it was thought not an injustice to levy and collect the tax from the owners of the property thus benefitted—hence the special tax system, which was arranged on the principle of the property owner paying in proportion to the benefit derived. This system in all local taxation was used, and when the assessments under it were faithfully and conscientiously made it formed a substitute for general taxation. It was admitted to be such because it arrived practically as nearly as human judgment could reach, at the just and reasonable apportionment of the benefits. Hence the fairness of charging benefits by frontage, was a conceded point in the case of streets along which there was a dense population, and where the size of the lots made it a fair mode of arriving at a true result. But to apply it to the country and to farm lands would lead to such inequality and injustice, as to deprive it of all soundness as a rule or as a substitute for a fair and impartial valuation of benefits in pursuance of law, so that a the first blush every one would pronounce it to be palpably unreasonable and unjust. "Judged by this rule" says the Court "for deciding in a question of constitutional power the law in this case cannot stand. Whether we view this highway as a macadamized highway, seven miles long, or three hundred, the result is the same to those along its route. To charge its cost upon the farms lying within one mile on either side at a fixed sum per acre is so obviously onerous and unreasonable, and leads to such a destruction of private right, and such unfairness of imposition for the advantage of the public at large, and of individuals who pay nothing, it cannot on any fair principle of reasoning, be said to be a valuation according to benefits. In other words it cannot with any degree of truth be pronounced to be a proper substitute for a just and impartial valuation of benefits. This needs no reasoning to make it plainer than the proposition presents itself to the mind the moment it is stated. If unreasonable and not a fair substitute for a valuation made by a disinterested tribunal, acting according to the law of the land, then it plainly is not within the principle of the many decisions in this and other States, recognizing the per feet frontage rule as a fair mode of measuring the benefits and is consequently not a legitimate method of assessment upon the adjacent farm lands."

The Court further disposes of the theory that there is a true analogy between the Washington avenue act and the frontage rule, by referring to an examination of the facts, which show the entire want of analogy between large farms, with a single occupant, or owner in untenanted lands in the country, and the small lots on a crowded street in a prosperous town. The Legislature therefore made a mistake in this act. It was nothing more than a law to coerce certain land owners to pay for a public improvement, in which their interest was no greater, and in some instances not so great as that of many others who paid nothing, and hence offended against the clear intent and spirit of the Constitution. Taxation should visit all alike, according to benefit, and be just and equal in its distribution; otherwise it was extortion, not taxation. It was perfectly obvious that this avenue would be one of general public benefit; and of special benefit to citizens beyond the limits of taxation assigned, both laterally and terminally. This then brought it within the provisions of a former opinion of the Court, wherein it was held that local assessments could only be constituted when imposed to pay for local improvements, clearly confining special benefits on the properties assessed and to the extent of these benefits. They could not be imposed when the improvement was expressed or appeared to be for general benefit. The opinion of which the above is a brief synopsis is an unusually lengthy one and enters into a minute and elaborate statement of the law of taxation, in an interesting manner. Its length alone prevents us from publishing it entire.

Although nothing is said directly the act by implication settles the question in regard to "repaving streets" for a reference is made in it to the case of Haight vs. the city of Philadelphia—the celebrated Broad street case in which an opinion was rendered by Judge Sharswood against the right of the city to collect for repaving. The opinion, however, was from a divided Court, and the principle was thus not as firmly settled as was desirable. The opinion which we have given above, however, re-affirms this principle indirectly, and as it comes from a full bench this time, the principle may now be considered as established.

The case which was thus decided was argued before the Court by Mr. C. S. Fetterman for the plaintiff, and Messrs Shaffer and Acheson for defense.

THE COURTS.

Saturday's Proceedings.

OYER AND TERMINER—JUDGE COLLIER.

When Court opened at half-past nine o'clock Saturday morning, the jury in the case of Peter Loringer, charged with the murder of Jacob Duffield, came into Court. After the usual preliminary questions by the Clerk the foreman of the jury announced that they had agreed upon a verdict of "murder in the second degree," but recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the Court.

The prisoner seemed to be taken completely by surprise at the result, and manifested considerable emotion—in which some of his relatives who were in the Court room, joined.

M. Swartzwelder, Esq., counsel for the defendant, subsequently moved for a new trial and arrest of judgment, and stated that reasons therefor would be filed in proper time. The defendant was remanded to jail to await the disposition of the motion.

The jury were out about twenty-one hours.

The trial of Finn, who was indicted with Loringer for the same murder, will likely be had next week. District Attorney Bayne, we understand, offered to submit his case to the same jury which tried Loringer, offering the same evidence, with one or two additional witnesses, but the counsel of Finn desired a trial before a new jury.

The jury in the case of Downer et al. vs. Brown, tried in the District Court, were discharged Saturday morning from further consideration of the case, having found it impossible to agree upon a verdict. They were out four days and three nights. A majority, we understand, were in favor of a verdict for plaintiff, but one of the minority said he would stick to his opinion if they were required to remain out until next summer. The case occupied eighteen days in trial, and the four days of consideration by the jury make a total of twenty-two days. This is the second trial, and the third is now in order.

CITY MISSIONS.

Anniversary Meeting at the Third Church Last Night—Report of the Superintendent—Review of the Work—Addresses.

The second anniversary of the City Missions, as conducted by a committee of the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, was held last evening at the Third Presbyterian Church, on Sixth avenue. The attendance was very large, and the proceedings highly interesting.

The work is conducted under the auspices of a Committee of the Presbytery, consisting of one member from each church within the city limits, and two missionaries, or a Superintendent and missionary, are regularly employed.

The proceedings were opened with an anthem sung by the united choirs of the First and Third Churches, after which the Rev. S. F. Scovel read a portion of scriptures, and led in prayer. After the singing of a hymn by the congregation, the Rev. S. C. Faris, the Superintendent of Missions, was introduced, and made his annual report, from which we extract the following:

THE YEAR'S WORK.

One year ago we were well at work at Soho. The chapel was built by the committee and was well nigh out of debt. About the first of last April we secured Mr. Wm. McKibbin as missionary for that place, who has been conducting the services there ever since. The Lord blessed his labors to the conversion of some of his hearers. As they desired to make a public profession in connection with our church, there was a necessity for inaugurating a new method in our work. After a full discussion of the matter the committee directed the Superintendent to invite the Session of the Sixth Church to hold a communion service at the Mission. This they readily agreed to do, and after preliminary services during the week the Lord's Supper was this morning administered at Soho Chapel, eight persons making a public profession of their faith in Christ. It was not the first fruit of this mission work, but it was a blessed consecration for this new movement, and last but not least, it was a blessed comfort to the heart of that young brother, the missionary there, who is thus early gathering fruit in Christ's vineyard. There is at this mission all the regular services except Sabbath morning.

At Allentown there is a temporary chapel fitted up by Mr. Benjamin McLean and a few of his friends. As it was found too small for the Sabbath-school, this good brother built an infant class-room as an addition. In this chapel there is Sabbath-school and Sabbath evening service. We expect soon to start a prayer-meeting there. Two of the brethren there have offered $1,500 toward a new chapel on ground that will doubtless be given to us. If you say so, we will build it the coming summer.

At Mt. Olive, there is a remnant of church organization. They meet in the Colfax School House, Twenty-second ward. They have occasionally enjoyed the ministrations of excellent men, but have been without preaching for a good while. They seemed utterly disheartened when our committee took hold of them and promised to help them; for some two months or more there has been preaching there on Sabbath morning and prayer-meeting on Wednesday evening. Although there are not much more than a dozen members there were fifty-five persons at the last Wednesday evening prayer-meeting, and not one man who would lead in prayer.

A subscription paper for a church building has been started—ground has been offered free, and they will raise from three to four thousand dollars. They only ask us to give them fifteen hundred dollars. The Sabbath School which died out some time ago, will be reorganized in a week or so if we can get a Superintendent for it.

If you could see the scores of young people there, some of them in our Colleges and Seminaries, yet as sheep without a shepherd, you would say to this committee, "stand by their mission."

At Homestead, a very fine lot of ground in a good location has been set apart for a Presbyterian Church, and one man has offered $800 toward a building. An earnest worker there, Mr. McClure, has fitted up an old carpenter shop so as to make it quite comfortable, and there we have Sabbath School, Sabbath evening service, and Wednesday evening prayer meeting. The little temporary chapel is frequently crowded on Sabbath evening, and a deep interest seems to be felt in the enterprise. There ought to be something done this coming summer.

You will rejoice with us when we tell you that in this new place we have stolen march on the devil, and set up the standard of the cross, before he could build a station house for the "Dead River Rail Road."

Mt. Albion is the name of a Mission Sabbath School on a hill beyond the Allegheny Cemetery. The school has been conducted by some earnest young workers, with but little assistance from us. There has been occasional preaching there, but we hope to work that field with more vigor in the future. If, however, we get a foothold in Hatfield the necessity for the mission on the hill will probably cease for awhile.

Our Committee took hold of Bloomfield about a year ago. At that time they were so discouraged that one of their leading men said there would not be more than a dozen at the public service. But the attendance increased until there were over a hundred, and they began to talk about organization. They have become a church and will soon call a pastor, being able to support him with but little help. They have twenty-four members, nearly one-half came from the world. We have 500 to 600 children, and as many attending the church services.

In closing, Mr. Faris stated that two more missionaries should be employed. Also, that money was needed; $10,000 will be absolutely necessary to do the work of the year. Looking over the field does it seem to you that any part of it can be neglected? Is not rather our duty to not only sustain it, but to enlarge it and increase the efforts one hundred fold, to the praise of the glory of God's grace?

Another hymn was sung by the congregation, after which Rev. A. A. Hodge, D. D., of Allegheny, spoke at length upon the among the masses of our people. He did not appear for the purpose of advocating church extension, although that was good enough in its place. He should speak of the great duty and vital necessity of all Christians preaching the Gospel to the poor; not the poor merely who are poor with regard to this world's goods, but all those who are destitute of the pure religion of the Lord Jesus Christ. He showed how, in our city churches, great efforts were made, and vast sums of money expended, to build magnificent houses of worship; then, how the people who attended these churches bedecked themselves in gaudy attire, such as, in many cases, to put to shame the plainer dress of the poorer classes, in effect to keep them away from the sanctuary. In this way our churches fail to reach the great mass of our city population, with the preached word. Much more was said with reference to the rapidly growing population of our city, and of the vast floating population, which was brought under the influence of our people from time to time; and the speaker, with great earnestness, urged the importance and the duty of every one engaging in the work in the same capacity.

Brief addresses were delivered by Joseph McKnight, Esq., President of the Committee on Missions, and the Rev. F. A. Noble, after which a collection, for the furtherance of the work was taken up, from which a handsome sum was realized.

Another hymn was sung, prayer was offered and the benediction pronounced by the Rev. D. McKinney, D. D., and a little before ten o'clock the large audience dispersed.

FLOWERS.

Floral Beauties in the Dead of Winter.

It is no weakness that prompts the passionate love for flowers that lives alike in the hearts of rich and poor, learned and unlettered, saints and sinners. The pretty little posey that brightens the wayside blooms for all, and in its silent language there is more poetry than has ever been written. Flowers are full of sentiment. They whisper love, heighten joys and sanctify grief. Nowhere are they out of place. At the dazzling ball or on the church altar, in the gorgeous palace or humble hut, twined joyfully on the bridal veil or mournfully resting on the bosom of the shrouded corpse, anywhere or anything they can with delicate propriety be introduced and are always full of expression appropriate to the time, place and occasion. Of late, thanks to our flori-culturists, an increased love for flowers has been rekindled in the hearts of our people, and it is rarely that we visit the festive ball or house of mourning without seeing the choisest exotics, fresh and dew glittering from the parent stems. Messrs. John R. & A. Murdoch, No. 112 Smithfield street, whose conservatory is one of the model institutions of the character in the land, inform us that, of late their sales of winter flowers have been largely on the increase, which tells well for the growing taste and refinement of our people. They raise, in the dead cold of winter, flowers so perfect and beautiful as might cause mother earth to blush at the imperfections of her best outdoor offerings, even in the mouth of roses. These flowers are of the rarest and richest varieties, and, while bringing them forth by artificial means is accompanied with great labor, yet growing so many and pursuing the culture as a business, they are enabled to make the boquet almost as inexpensive and popular in bleak December as it is in rosy June. It requires no little degree of poetic art to arrange flowers in proper shape for presentation even after they are culled, as gift and wedding bouquets, bridal and burial wreaths are quite different things, and exquisite taste, together with actual knowledge of the language of flowers, must be exercised in making them up, else propriety might be sensibly violated. This specialty has long made the Messrs. Murdoch conspicuous as florists, and their designs are always chaste, neat and expressive, whether in bouquets, wreathes, crosses, pyramids, baskets or fancy elaborations. At short notice they can supply any quantity of the sweetest and most beautiful of flowers in any desired shape, and for either sad or joyful occasions, and their prices are exceedingly reasonable. In addition to their large floral business, they deal extensively in flower seeds and bulbs, greeneries, hanging baskets, foreign and American birds, bird cages, twining wire-work, plants and everything peculiar to their line of trade. They are honorable and courteous business men, and we bespeak for them the confidence of our readers.

Forbes District Schools—Organization of the Board—The Pay of Women Teachers.

The Forbes District, Sixth ward, School Board organized on Saturday evening, the newly elected members presenting their certificates as follows: John L. Hamilton, one year; Ernest W. Morrow, three years; Jacob Kleber, three years. Hugh McMaster was elected President, and Frank P. Case, Secretary.

A communication from the Secretary of the Central Board was presented, which stated that the amount coming to the Forbes Board for the payment of night school teachers for the past session was $405.00, and asking a decision as to its distribution among the four teachers employed.

Heretofore the practice has been to pay the principal (male) the sum of $150 for the session, and to divide the balance, whatever it might be, equally among the female teachers.

Mr. Morrow moved that the money be equally divided between the four teachers, which was seconded by Mr. Case.

Mr. Hamilton moved an amendment, that the old practice be adhered to.

After considerable discussion, the matter was finally decided on an amendment to the amendment by Mr. Case, that the Principal should receive $135, and the balance be divided equally among the other teachers, which gives them $93.33 each.

No other business of importance was transacted.

Parties wanting wagons and not wishing to invest in new ones, should call on John Dyer, Mary's court, Allegheny; he has some second-hand ones for sale cheap. Also, second-hand barrels, white lime, white sand chimney tops, brick tile, etc. He supplies charcoal in lots of 10 to 100 bushels at reasonable rates.

The place to buy Marbleized Mantels, good and cheap, is where they are manufactured at 319 and 321 Liberty street, one square below the Grain Elevator. This is the only place in Western Pennsylvania where they are made.

COMPLAINTS are made in various quarters of the country that winter wheat is suffering considerably from the unfavorable condition of the ground, caused by the changeable weather during the winter.

A MAN named Dennis Meeley fell from the trestle-work leading into the stock-house of the Otis Iron Works, Sharon, on Monday night of last week, a distance of eighteen feet, killing him almost instantly. The remains were taken in charge by the chief of police.

The Greenville Argus says: Thos. Dumars was knocked down and robbed while returning to his home on Monday night, by some dastardly scoundrel who attacked him near the Union School building. He received several severe cuts and bruises while resenting the attack, but was finally overcome and relieved of his pocketbook, containing about one hundred and twenty dollars.

THE Tyrone Herald says: Last fall, Mr. Peter Kooken, residing on the road between Birmingham and Warrior's Mark, while prospecting for iron ore, on his farm, one and a half miles from little Juniata, opposite Sinking Valley, sunk two shafts, 35 rods distant, not on same trace, and found very rich veins of copper, and the article has been so pronounced by experts in Reading and Pittsburgh. We congratulate Mr. Kooken on his good fortune.

MR. W. F. CHALFONT has sold out his interest in the Greenville Argus to Mr. Harry Watson, his partner, and has gone to take charge of a paper in Burlington, Kansas. Mr. Watson served his "apprenticeship" on this journal in the city news department, and we are glad of his success. He is a gentleman of culture and education, and thoroughly industrious and steady. The Argus will be well conducted by him, and we wish it much prosperity.

IN reply to our Masontown correspondent we have to say that the game law says: "It shall not be lawful for any person within the commonwealth to shoot, kill, or in any way trap or destroy any blue bird, swallow, martin or other insectivorous bird at any season of the year, under the penalty of two dollars." No special mention is made of the chicken-hawk here or in any other section of the law, and we hardly think it could be classed as an insectivorous bird.

THE Uniontown Standard says: On Wednesday night, January 3d, a man named Holland, whilst under the influence of liquor, undertook to go to his home near the Falls, but was unable to get home, and laid down in a field. He was discovered the next morning about fifty yards from his house, in an unconscious condition. He was taken home, and a doctor sent for. The man was so badly frozen that, at last accounts, the flesh was dropping off from his hands and feet. When first discovered, the calves of the man's legs were frozen as hard as a stone.

THE Engineering and Mining Journal says that the Upper Forrest Tin Works, near Swansea, Wales, have capped the climax of thin paper. They have produced a sheet 10x5 2 8 inches, weighing 20 grains, which is but 16 grains for 44 surface inches, and it requires 4,800 placed side by side to make one inch in thickness. This stands on record as the thinnest sheet of iron ever rolled. The thinnest sheet of tissue paper to be purchased measures the 1200th part of an inch—four times as thick as this.

A CORRESPONDENT in Paris writes that recently a boatman, for a wager, crossed the Seine on foot, at a point opposite the Institute. He wore wooden shoes of great length, and carried an oar to balance himself. Thus equipped, he passed safely from one block of ice to another, although the current of the river was not completely stopped. The feat was one which few men living have ever seen accomplished. The joy of the victor was somewhat dampened by his being arrested on reaching shore by two policemen, who were of opinion that he had transgressed rules. He was taken by the zealous agents before a Commissary of Police, who, of course, released him.

M. DUCHESNE THOUREAU, at Chatillon-sur-Seine, has experimented successfully in the Hoolbreak system of fruit culture. Discarding the old methods of pruning, and devoting careful attention to proper nutrition, aeration, and insolation, he attained marvellous results. A vine nine years old bore 300 kilogrammes of magnificent grapes, some of the bunches being more than a foot in length. A branch 16 feet long bore 85 branches, at every bud. Figs were raised weighing over a quarter of a pound a piece, and his fig-trees yielded an uninterrupted harvest from the month of June until the 25th of October, at which date they were matted for the winter. Single trees matured two crops in one season.

THE oldest pieces of wrought-iron now known are probably the sickle blade found by Belzoni under the base of a sphynx in Karnak, the blade found by Colonel Vyse embedded in the masonry of the Great Pyramid, and the portion of a cross-cut saw exhumed at Nimroud by Mr. Layard, all of which are now in the British Museum. A wrought bar of Damascus steel was presented by King Porus to Alexander the Great, and the razor steel of China, for many centuries has surpassed all European steel in temper and durability of edge. The Hindoos appear to have made wrought iron directly from the ore, without passing it through the stage of wrought iron, from time immemorial, and elaborately ornamented wrought iron of huge dimensions are still standing in India, which date from the early centuries of the Christian era.

THE Cumberland News says: "A little two year old child of James Campbell, (colored), residing near Rose Hill Cemetery, in this city, was burned to death yesterday evening. The particulars are as follows: The mother; having occasion to go some distance from the house for a bucket of water, left her two children in the room. During her absence, the younger one, while playing with a lighted stick at the stove, set its clothing on fire, and when the mother returned she found the charred remains of her child lying upon the floor. The other child was uninjured.

FOUR appointments of ladies to first-class post offices, with $4,000 salaries, have been made during the present National Administration. Over 100 women are employed in similar offices throughout the country, though not at such high prices.
